Today is "Laetare Sunday" [the Sunday in which the entrance antiphon of the liturgy begins with the word "laetare"]. "Laetare" means "rejoice." Midway through our Lenten journey towards Christ's Passion and Resurrection, the Church invites us to rejoice. Today's rose-colored vestments symbolize this rejoicing. In one sense, it is strange to rejoice right in the middle of this penitential season, when we are letting the Holy Spirit remind us of all our sins and selfish tendencies.

40 Cans for Lent

A program designed to fight hunger! Purchase one can of food per day during the days of Lent. Bring your cans to OLPH church and place it in the food cart.

Any non-perishable items will be gladly accepted including personal hygiene and cleaning products. Proceeds from our 40 cans for Lent will benefit our local food pantry. Your small sacrifice can make a big difference. Thank you for your generosity!

ACT OF CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH

O Glorious Patriarch and Patron of the Church! O Virgin Spouse of the Virgin Mother of God! O Guardian and Virginal Father of the Word Incarnate! In the presence of Jesus and Mary, I choose you this day to be the father, guardian, and protector of the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help / St Jude Our Lady of Perpetual Help / St Jude.

O great St. Joseph, whom God has made the Head of the Holy Family, accept the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help / St Jude, to be a member of your "Holy House." Present the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help / St Jude to your Immaculate Spouse; ask her also to adopt the souls living within the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help / St Jude as her children. With her, pray that we may constantly think of Jesus, and serve him faithfully to the end of our lives. O Terror of Demons, increase in us virtue, protect us from the evil one, and help us not to offend God in any way.

O Spiritual Father, I hereby consecrate the Parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help / St Jude to you. In faithful imitation of Jesus and Mary, we place ourselves, and all our concerns under your care and protection. To you, after Jesus and Mary, we consecrate our bodies and souls, with all their faculties, our spiritual growth, our homes, and all our affairs and undertakings. Forsake us not, but adopt us as servants and children of the Holy Family. Watch over us at all times, but especially at the hour of death. Console and strengthen us with the presence of Jesus and Mary so that, with you, we may praise and adore the Holy Trinity for all eternity. Amen.

"A single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after death."
