

Year of Saint Joseph

The Resurrected Christ by Bramantino (1490)

Christ is the Key to interpreting all Scripture

Peter's proclamation to his fellow Jews after he healed the crippled beggar is exactly what the Resurrected Lord told his disciples to declare: "that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Peter also gave the most charitable interpretation as to why his people and their leaders "put to death" "the author of life." It was out of "ignorance." So, if they accept that explanation, they can easily be enlightened and receive the truth, repent, be converted, and be liberated from sin.

Not only is only one Word actually spoken in all of Divine Revelation, "All the Scriptures – the Law, the Prophets, and the Psalms – are fulfilled in Christ" and this fulfillment is thoroughly "Good News" (CCC 2763).

What is this fulfillment? "The Scriptures had foretold this divine plan of salvation through the putting to death of 'the righteous one, my Servant' as a mystery of universal redemption, that is, as the ransom that would free men from the slavery of sin" (CCC 601).

Christ frees man from sin through His death.

"Citing a confession of faith that he himself had 'received', St. Paul professes that 'Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures'" (CCC 601). That is, His death for our sins was testified by the Old Testament scriptures.

"In particular Jesus' redemptive death fulfills Isaiah's prophecy of the suffering Servant. Indeed Jesus himself explained the meaning of his life and death in the light of God's suffering Servant. After his Resurrection he gave this interpretation of the Scriptures to the disciples at Emmaus, and then to the apostles" (CCC 601).

Thus, the heart of evangelization and catechesis is Christ. "To catechize is 'to reveal in the Person of Christ the whole of God's eternal design reaching fulfillment in that Person'" (CCC 426).

So, in catechesis, "Christ, the Incarnate Word and Son of God, . . . is taught – everything else is taught with reference to him – and it is Christ alone who teaches – anyone else teaches to the extent that he is Christ's spokesman" (CCC 427).
