

Year of Saint Joseph

A special "thank you" goes out to John and Connie Tupa for their many years of taking care of the plants and flowers in the front of the church. Thank you so much for your dedication to this ministry of service. However, there is now an opening to take care of the front of the Church. Please contact Rose Thompson if interested in taking on this important service to the church facility.

From the first reading, The Acts of the Apostles, Peter makes an extremely bold claim. It is that Jesus Christ is the one and only savior of the world. "There is no salvation through anyone else," not even Moses.

Peter's proof to the Jewish authorities is the healing of the cripple by the power of Jesus Christ. This proof is hard for those authorities to accept, since they rejected Jesus.

A very important virtue every one of us needs—especially those in authority—is humility. A humble person can accept, when given adequate evidence, that he has been wrong about something. A humble person can then adopt the truth, which he now sees. A humble person can also then adapt his behavior to the truth, which he now sees. A humble person lives in accord with truth.

From the Gospel of John we are given the image of the Good Shepherd. The good shepherd owns the sheep he cares for. His sheep know they belong to him; they recognize his voice; and they follow him. He has true concern for them. When the wolf attacks, he stays with the sheep to defend them, risking his safety to do so. He will even lay down his life to protect them. He is a kind of father to his sheep.

Jesus has laid down his life for us because he has true concern for us. He has done so to defend us against every evil: the devil, sin, and death. Christ knows us and we know him.

We know God the Father through him.

Although those persons who belong to him are found scattered throughout the world and throughout time, we really do form one Church.

Christ was able to defend us from every evil, because he had the power

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

to lay down his life and to take it up again.
