

Mother's Day

Please note that Confirmation and First Eucharist Mass will be at OLPH, 22 May @ 4pm. The usually scheduled Mass at SJ 5pm is cancelled.

Made for Greatness Men's Retreat

Would you like to be closer to God, but He sometimes seems distant? Can prayer be a battle for you at times? Join us for the Made for Greatness Men's Retreat on July 16-18 to learn how to go deeper in friendship with God. This will be a time to explore Catholic spirituality specifically as men. There will be comradery, great food, and the chance for real spiritual growth. The retreat will be held at Stiklestad Lodge, a corporate hunting retreat center near Fort Ransom, ND, so there will also be opportunities for trap shooting, campfires, sports and more. To find out more or register, visit www.fargodiocese.org/mfg.

Sometimes when we see the opposite of something, we appreciate it better. The opposite of Christ's battle plan is the devil's battle plan. The devil's battle plan is symbolized in literature by a mythological beast that we are all familiar with: the dragon. Dragons are present in the literature of almost every major culture group in human history. There is something universal about this strange, powerful, fantastic monster. Dragons have only one desire: to hoard as much treasure as they possibly can. And so, they go around breathing fire and causing massive death and destruction. And wherever they go, they gather gold, silver, valuable jewels, magnificent swords and armor - anything of value that they can get their claws on. But then what do they do with it?

They put it in a big pile somewhere in an inaccessible cave, and they sit on it. It's of no use to them, or to anyone else. They don't buy things with the gold or silver; they don't display the jewels; they don't defend justice with the swords and armor - they just sit on top of their hoard and keep it all to themselves; they are beastly Scrooges.

That's exactly what the devil wants each one of us to do. He wants us to be more and more self-absorbed and self-centered. He wants us to use our God-given talents, strengths, and interests just for ourselves (if we use them at all), just to make ourselves rich, powerful, comfortable, or popular. That's the opposite of Christ's battle plan!

Just as God poured out his generous love by creating the universe and giving us existence, so Jesus invites us to pour out our talents and energies in building up society and doing good for those around us. We are not created to be dragons; we are created to be children of a creative, redeeming God.

Those to be confirmed and received their First Eucharist on the 22nd of May, the Vigil of the Feast of Pentecost, are:

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" - JOHN 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?
