February 25, 2018 | Second Sunday of Lent

Saint George

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Rev. Oscar Martin Picos, Pastor
Rev. Arokia Dass David, Parochial Vicar

This Lent, CRS Rice Bowl invites you, your family and community to journey alongside the Good Samaritan, to reflect on the question: Who is my neighbor?

So many of our neighbors are on the move: migrants, refugees, internally displaced persons, travelers. The Good Samaritan—a traveler himself, one on the move—shows us what it means to encounter the stranger, to accompany one in need and become a companion on the journey.

Pope Francis has invited Catholics to build bridges of understanding and hospitality with migrants and refugees through “Share the Journey” campaign.

Reflections from Pope Francis

“We are always capable of going out of ourselves towards the other. Unless we do this, other creatures will not be recognized for their true worth; we are unconcerned about caring for things for the sake of others; we fail to set limits on ourselves in order to avoid the suffering of others or the deterioration of our surroundings. Disinterested concern for others, and the rejection of every form of self-centeredness and self-absorption, are essential if we truly wish to care for our brothers and sisters and for the natural environment. These attitudes also attune us to the moral imperative of assessing the impact of our every action and personal decision on the world around us. If we can overcome individualism, we will truly be able to develop a different lifestyle and bring about significant changes in society.” (Laudato Si’, 208)

Second Week of Lent - Encounter Cesia

We encounter Cesia in Nicaragua, where, despite a lack of economic opportunity, young people pursue their dreams by building businesses to better their lives. How can you work to improve the lives of others this Lent? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org to discover more.

This Lent, become companions on the journey through daily prayer, weekly fasting and almsgiving that will change lives. Jesus gives us the example of the Good Samaritan. With CRS Rice Bowl as our guide, we set out to encounter and love our neighbor through the Lenten season.
Abraham was totally devoted to God and thus willing to sacrifice his one and only son at God’s command. His faith in God was beyond comparison; he believed God would make good on all His promises. Abraham would withhold nothing from God.

God offered His only Son, Jesus, as sacrifice for us. He did not spare Him, all for the sake of His people, those of us created in His own image and likeness. How do we, God’s children, respond to Jesus’ self-emptying sacrifice offered in obedience to His Father’s will, despite our sinfulness?

“Sacrifice teaches us the joy of putting others first, while it strengthens us to respond decisively to the influence of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Yielding to God takes guts, like leaping off a high precipice into pitch darkness. It feels risky, but when we can’t clearly see what’s ahead and we choose to entrust ourselves to God’s love, the rewards are fantastic.”

Sacrifice is transforming. It can create a beauty deep within that transfigures us far beyond what any cosmetics or plastic surgery can possibly accomplish for our exterior selves. Spiritual beauty is not superficial and will endure forever.

“Think of an act of charity: helping a sick loved one, feeding the hungry, offering aid to storm victims, visiting the imprisoned. All of these acts of love require the gift of self, from which new life and healing can spring forth in ourselves and in others.”

Are we willing to give to God, to give back that which He has so generously given us? What are we willing to sacrifice? Where is our true beauty found?

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are one community nourished and transformed by the Eucharist. As the body of Christ, we are led by the Holy Spirit to know, love and serve God and one another.

Somos una comunidad alimentada y transformada por la Eucaristía. Como cuerpo de Cristo, somos guiados por el Espíritu Santo, para conocer, amar y servir a Dios y unos a otros.
The transfiguration of Jesus reminds us of His two dimensions: the divine and the human. As Christians, we need to understand both aspects of God’s existence.

If we separate Jesus from his divinity because of His humanity, or vice versa, our picture is incomplete. If we think that the divine God in heaven does not have time to attend to human beings, we lose the essence of our Christian faith—that God became man for our sake. Perceiving the divine dimension without the human produces a partial, incomplete image of Jesus, without the compassion to question or respond to the human heart. If, on the other hand, we think that when Jesus became human He became entirely attached to the world, we lose the transcendence of God because of His humanity. As Christians, we must embrace both the divinity and the humanity of the Lord.

Today’s Gospel helps us to grasp this dual existence. In a spectacular and symbolic way, heaven and earth merge human and divine appearance. For the human being, this dual reality of Jesus offers a deep and moving joy.

If, like the apostles, we can experience such a human presence, so divine, then we can live both aspects of the Lord’s figure and experience. Like Jesus, we can be in the world without being of the world.

God the Father says: “This is my beloved Son.” As Christians, our task is to listen intensely and proclaim this Good News to the world. Reaching this goal will take our whole life. To make this synthesis is to understand the transfiguration.

Los cristianos de todos los tiempos tenemos dos peligros a la hora de percibir a Dios y su presencia en el mundo. Hay dos posturas arriesgadas que desdibujan la presencia del Dios verdadero.

La primera postura concibe a Dios que está en el cielo tan ocupado en sus asuntos que no tiene tiempo de atender a los seres humanos… Esta postura genera cristianos incapaces de tener los pies en el suelo. Esta forma de entender a Dios produce cristianos alérgicos a la vida, personas que no valoran la creación de Dios que perciben como mala.

La otra postura no menos dolorosa es justo la contraria. Cristianos que quieren ver a Dios tan apegado al mundo que se disuelve en él. Esta postura hace que Dios pierda la trascendencia ya que se incide tanto en su humanidad que se difumina su divinidad. Cristianos que tienen miedo de mirar cara a cara la divinidad del Señor. Son los cristianos que se olvidan que hay que estar en el mundo sin ser del mundo…

El Evangelio de hoy nos invita a ser precisamente eso: Buena Noticia, Evangelio encarnado. De una manera espectacular y simbólica se funden el cielo y la tierra, la aparición humana y divina. Para el ser humano esta doble realidad de Jesús le produce una profunda y conmovedora felicidad. Si quitas a Jesús su divinidad a costa de su humanidad, le dejas incompleto y si lo haces al revés, también.

Lo percibes tal cual es cuando logras experimentar una presencia tan humana, tan divina… Una dimensión sin la otra sólo hace presente a un Jesús parcial, incompleto, sin capacidad de cuestionar ni dar respuesta al corazón humano.

La transfiguración de Jesús nos recuerda estas dos dimensiones: la divina y la humana. Hoy más que nunca el mundo necesita cristianos que sepan nivelar y vivir ambos aspectos de la figura y la vivencia del Señor.
