Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. — Jn 20:8
Rejoice! He is risen! Alleluia!

Jesus’ death on the Cross won victory over sin. His rising from the dead restored life, offering eternal life to those of us who believe and follow in His footsteps.

The beautifully scripted word ‘Rejoice’ on the red wall in the stairwell of the Scanlan building recently caught my eye.

I had just returned from our parish Thrift Store’s Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon where more than 150 individuals were recognized for their faithful service to the successful operation of the store. Coupled with their service is the life-giving outreach they offer to those who enter the store in need of assistance or merely to shop.

Father Martin addressed those in attendance and identified how special the thrift store ministry is in St. George and the tremendous service it offers to our community. So often, money realized from sales at our thrift store is what catches our attention; we overlook the greater good and depth of the ministry.

Those who offer their time in this ministry can follow in the footsteps of our Lord as they clothe the naked, counsel the doubtful and comfort the afflicted. May we rejoice when we can perform these Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy in our daily lives.

On this Easter Day, let us give thanks and rejoice for Jesus’ great victory over sin and death, all for love of us. May we see in those we encounter – family, friend or stranger – the redeeming, loving face of Jesus, and acknowledge that person as Jesus would.

“The joy of the risen Lord is the sunshine of our Father’s love. The joy of Jesus is the hope of eternal happiness. The joy of Jesus is the flame of burning love. Easter is this joy.” 1

May Easter Joy always prevail!

¡Alégrense! ¡Él ha resucitado! ¡Aleluya!

La muerte de Jesús en la Cruz ganó la victoria sobre el pecado. Su resurrección de entre los muertos restauró la vida, ofreciendo vida eterna a aquellos de nosotros que creemos y seguimos sus pasos.

La bellamente escrita palabra ‘Regocijate’ en la pared roja en la escalera del edificio Scanlan me llamó la atención recientemente.

Acababa de regresar del almuerzo de apreciación de voluntarios de nuestra parroquia Tienda de Segunda Mano, donde más de 150 personas fueron reconocidas por su servicio fiel a la operación exitosa de la tienda. Junto con su servicio es el alcance de vida que ofrecen a quienes entran en la tienda que necesitan asistencia o simplemente para comprar.

El Padre Martin se dirigió a los asistentes e identificó cuán especial es el ministerio de la tienda de segunda mano en St. George y el tremendo servicio que ofrece a nuestra comunidad. Muy a menudo, el dinero obtenido de las ventas en nuestra tienda de segunda mano es lo que llama nuestra atención; pasamos por alto el mayor bien y la profundidad del ministerio.

Aquello que ofrecen su tiempo en este ministerio pueden seguir los pasos de nuestro Señor mientras visitan al desnudo, aconsejan los dudosos y confortan a los afligidos. Que nos regocijemos cuando podamos realizar estas Obras de Misericordia Corporales y Espirituales en nuestras vidas diarias.

En este Día de Pascua, demos gracias y nos regocijamos por la gran victoria de Jesús sobre el pecado y la muerte, todo por amor a nosotros. Que veamos en aquellos a quienes encontramos - familia, amigo o extraño - el rostro redentor y amoroso de Jesús, y reconozcamos a esa persona como lo haría Jesús.

"La alegría del Señor resucitado es la luz del amor de nuestro Padre. La alegría de Jesús es la esperanza de la felicidad eterna. La alegría de Jesús es la llama del amor ardiente. La Pascua es esta alegría”. 1

¡Que la alegría de Pascua siempre prevalezca!

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are one community nourished and transformed by the Eucharist.
As the body of Christ, we are led by the Holy Spirit to know, love and serve God and one another.

Somos una comunidad alimentada y transformada por la Eucaristía. Como cuerpo de Cristo, somos guiados por el Espíritu Santo, para conocer, amar y servir a Dios y unos a otros.
Pastor’s Message by Father Oscar Martin Picos
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord / Domingo de la Pascua de la Resurrección del Señor

Happy Easter of Resurrection!

Today we celebrate the peak moment of our faith, the event that transformed humanity. Christ has conquered death and we are resurrected with Him.

Why do Christians believe in the Resurrection? What does it mean for us?

Jesus explicitly affirms the reality of the resurrection of the dead, but says little about what it really is. The biblical texts make it clear that our resurrection will not be a return to the life we knew before, as it was for Lazarus and the daughter of Jairus. Instead, our resurrection will be a step forward to a life totally transformed in God.

Our lives are constantly touched by sin. Our desire to be and always remain with Jesus is continuously broken by the reality of our fragile existence. For those who truly want to be with the Lord, it is He Himself Who offers us resurrection, where there will be no separation, no rupture, no presence of sin.

Faith is not reserved solely for the moment of death, or as a refuge when death is pending. But it is true that you and God are the only ones left when the final moment of earthly life arrives. At that moment, between you and the Lord will be established that dialogue without words, that vision without eyes, that knowledge beyond reason.

Jesus says, "I have come that they may have life." In the solemnity of Easter we see that our lives are not limited to human parameters, but open to the transcendence of the infinite.

Thank you, Jesus, for our faith. Thank you for Your Resurrection that enables us all to rise again.

¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección!

Hoy estamos festejando el momento cumbre de nuestra fe, el acontecimiento que transformó la humanidad desvalida y nuestras pobres vidas lanzadas al pecado. Cristo ha vencido a la muerte y nosotros con Él somos resucitados.

¿Por qué creemos los cristianos en la resurrección? ¿Qué es la resurrección para nosotros?

Es el mismo Jesús quien afirma explícitamente la realidad de la resurrección de los muertos, pero dice muy poco sobre lo que esa realidad sea en sí misma. Bien claro aparece en los textos bíblicos que la resurrección no es un volver a la vida de antes como fue el caso de Lázaro, de la hija de Jairo, etc. La resurrección es dar un paso adelante, definitivo a una vida totalmente transformada en Dios.

Toda la vida del cristiano está rozada constantemente por el pecado. El ansia de muchos hermanos y hermanas en la fe de estar y permanecer siempre en Jesús, se ve continuamente rota por la realidad de nuestra frágil existencia; para aquellos que desean de verdad estar con el Señor es Él mismo quien nos ofrece la resurrección, donde ya no habrá ninguna separación, ningún segundo momento de ruptura, ninguna presencia del pecado.

Siempre me ha llamado la atención que en muchos sectores de la vida católica, la fe sea referida casi exclusivamente al acontecimiento de la muerte. Es como si para el cristiano Dios tiene que estar sólo en el momento de la muerte, de la realidad del más allá. Esto en parte es verdad. Cuando nos llega el momento final de nuestra vida terrena sólo queda Dios y tú. Entre ambos se establecerá ese diálogo sin palabras, esa visión sin ojos, ese conocimiento más allá de la razón… La fe no es sólo para el momento de la muerte ni tampoco un refugio ante ella.

Dice Jesús "Yo he venido para que tengan vida" y en la solemnidad de hoy vemos que esa vida no se queda exclusivamente en parámetros humanos sino que se abre a la trascendencia del infinito.

Gracias Jesús por la fe, gracias por tu resurrección que nos hace resucitar a todos.

Do You Have Little Free Time But Would Like To Help Your Church?
Would you like to help your Church, but have very little free time? Join us to count the weekly collections.
We meet at 7:45 am on Monday mornings in the Scanlan Center. Counting the collection is a group effort of 5 or more people and most Mondays we are finished in about 2 hours. We have teams established so that most volunteers have only a once-a-month commitment.
Currently, we have a need for more volunteers on the 1st and 2nd Mondays of each month. In addition, we’d like to have an extra pool of 5 or more to cover months with 5 Mondays, or as substitutes for regular counters.
If you are good at counting money or have a background in banking or retail, you are a perfect fit for counting—however experience is not necessary. If you would like to give it a try, contact Shari Gowers at 435-773-7402 or gowers725@gmail.com

Pro-Life Walk for Life At a New Time
Please join Pro-Life leaders for “Walk for Life” on the first Saturday of the month (April 7) at a new time 9:15 am to 11:15 am at the corner of Bluff Street and 600 South. Carry Pro-Life signs and banners and pray with friends and neighbors (please bring your rosary) to end the cruel sin of abortion, eliminate Roe v. Wade, and close Planned Parenthood in St. George and throughout the nation.
May God bless all of you who come in the name of the Lord to save the helpless.

Reluctant Catechist Seeks Advice

“I keep thinking there are people more qualified for this than me. Any advice?”

We have many ancestors in faith who were just as reluctant to respond positively to God’s call; Jeremiah, Isaiah and Jonah, to mention a few.

I think reluctance is probably the hallmark of a good catechist! The reluctance stems from the question: What am I supposed to do? Proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ AND help the children to understand and live the Catholic faith. There is also an immense richness of our faith. There is, too, the uniqueness of each child that makes us think, perhaps, that someone else – someone other than me – would surely be a more effective catechist. “Why me?”

(That is what I kept telling myself, but what I kept hearing was, “Why not?”)

You can be a catechist, a good catechist. I know that because you have been called by someone who sees in you gifts that only you can bring. Gifts that are necessary for the message of Jesus to be heard and understood.

The resources and materials you will be exposed to as a catechist will refresh and expand your knowledge. You will have access to others who can help you with your own questions.

The Saint George parish is looking for catechists, males and females, teachers and substitute teachers for all grades, for the 2018-19 CCD school year which begins in August and runs through May. You don’t have to be an expert in Catholicism or a gifted teacher; you just need to have a desire to share your faith and to inspire the children of the parish. It is a joy to pass on the Church’s truths to our children so that they too, might live in union with God.

Act now! Our 2018 CCD season is coming to an end and now is the perfect time to visit a classroom. If you are interested in this great opportunity to serve your parish, contact Jill Luttrell by email at children.rus@gmail.com or call the church office at 435-673-2604.

FORMED—The Catholic Faith on Demand

Our parish has been gifted with a subscription to FORMED, an online website that provides 24/7 access to Catholic video-based study programs, feature films, audio presentations, and eBooks from some of the best Catholic apologists and speakers. It can help you learn more about your faith, grow closer to Jesus, reach fallen away Catholics, enrich your marriage and teach your children about their faith. There is content in both English and Spanish. This is free to all parishioners! Just go to: saintgeorgecatholics.formed.org to register. Also, download the mobile app for IOS or android so you can watch or listen anywhere. Please take advantage and enjoy this wonderful gift which has been given to our parish.

FORMED—La Fe Católica a la Demanda

Nuestra parroquia ha sido donada con una suscripción a FORMED, un sitio web en línea que le brinda acceso las 24 horas, los 7 días de la semana a programas de estudio Católicos en video, largometrajes, presentaciones de audio y libros electrónicos de algunos de los mejores apologistas y oradores Católicos. Te puede ayudar a aprender más sobre tu fe, a acercarte a Jesús, a alcanzar a católicos caídos, a enriquecer tu matrimonio y a enseñar a tus hijos sobre su fe. Lo tienen en inglés y español. ¡ Esto es gratis para todos los feligreses! Todo lo que necesitas hacer es ir a saintgeorgecatholics.formed.org para registrarse. Además, descarga la aplicación móvil para iOS o Android para que puedas mirar o escucharlo en cualquier lugar. Por favor, aprovecha este regalo que se le ha dado a nuestra parroquia.

La segunda colecta próximo fin de semana será a beneficio de los proyectos de la Iglesia Católica de Saint George.

Pro-Vida Caminata por la Vida En un Nuevo Tiempo

Únase a los líderes de Pro-Vida para “Caminar por la vida” el primer sábado del mes (7 de abril), a las 9:15 a.m. a 11:15 a.m. en la esquina de Bluff Street y 600 South.

Lleve letreros y pancartas Pro-Vida y ore con amigos y vecinos (por favor traiga su rosario) para terminar con el cruel pecado del aborto, elimine Roe v. Wade, y cierre Planned Parenthood en St. George y en todo el país.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos ustedes que vienen en el nombre del Señor para salvar a los indefensos.
