Fall Festival—Saturday, October 20

What is the Fall Festival? Imagine Cinco de Mayo, combine it with the Fashion Show, and you have a very good idea! While adults shop designer clothing, jewelry, handbags, shoes, accessories, and home décor there will be face painting and bounce houses to keep the children entertained. Holiday and vintage items will be offered. Plus, there are also some fantastic giveaways that include several restaurant dinners, an oil change from St. George Auto Repair, and a Eureka Casino gift certificate. And don’t forget the DJ provided music, and our fall-themed photo area—all you need is your phone.

If you have attended the Fashion Show, you know the great quality of the items being sold. And if you’re craving the food you’ve tasted at Cinco de Mayo—here is the chance to get a second helping before next May.

Due to the renovation of Kuzy Hall, it was not possible to have the Fashion Show this fall. Diane Cellini, Assistant Coordinator of the Thrift Store, says the plan is to move that very popular event to spring 2019.

The Fall Festival will be held in the Scanlan parking lot, from 10:00 am until 4:00 pm. It is sponsored by and benefits our parish Thrift Store. So come, bring a friend (or two), and help make our Fall Festival a success!

Festival de Otoño — Sábado, 20 de octubre

¿Qué es el Festival de Otoño? Imagina Cinco de Mayo, combina con el Fashion Show, y ¡tienes una muy buena idea! Mientras que los adultos compran ropa de diseñador, joyas, bolsos, zapatos, accesorios y decoración para el hogar, habrá pintura facial y casas de rebote para mantener entretenidos a los niños. Se ofrecerán artículos de fiesta y vintage. Además, también hay algunos obsequios fantásticos que incluyen varias cenas en restaurantes, un cambio de aceite de St. George Auto Repair, y un certificado de regalo de Eureka Casino. Y no olvide la música provista por el DJ y nuestra área de fotos con tema de otoño, todo lo que necesita es su teléfono.

Si ha asistido al Desfile de modas, conoce la gran calidad de los artículos que se venden. Y si está deseando la comida que probó en el Cinco de Mayo, esta es la oportunidad de obtener una segunda ayuda antes del próximo mes de mayo.

Debido a la renovación de Kuzy Hall, no fue posible tener el Fashion Show este otoño. Diane Cellini, Coordinadora Asistente de Thrift Store, dice que el plan es trasladar ese evento a primavera de 2019.

El Festival de otoño se llevará a cabo en el estacionamiento de Scanlan, desde las 10:00 am hasta las 4:00 pm. Es patrocinado por y beneficia a nuestra parroquia Thrift Store. ¡Ven, trae un amigo (o dos) y ayuda a que nuestro Festival de Otoño sea un éxito!
Eternal life. Everlasting life. What does it mean to us? Are we prepared to enter into it?

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Second Edition, eternal life is defined as: “Living forever with God in the happiness of heaven, entered after death by the souls of those who die in the grace and friendship of God.”

“This is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.” (Jn 17:3)

It’s that encounter, that final step, from this life we now know and are living, to that life, that unknown, which awaits us at the time of our physical death. Are we prepared? What if that moment of departure from this life happens today? Are we ready?

Dying, facing death ‘squarely in the eye’, is an emotional vision avoided by many, if not most. Yet, that moment is inevitable. It is a moment for which we should be preparing. Meeting God is a moment for which we should long and be prepared to embrace when it arrives.

That moment, if we are prepared, will offer us the opportunity to enter into a union like none we have known or experienced. This new destination, our eternal home, will offer us joy, no more pain or suffering, and endless opportunities to praise and glorify our Heavenly Father to whom we now pray and worship during this earthly journey.

Now, as Stewards and companions on this journey to our heavenly home, we pray to know the way, to know what we must do to enter that narrow gate that leads us to God, our Creator, our Redeemer, the Light in our darkness.

Abandon, during this earthly life, that which is not of God. Offer Him all you have in return for all He has given you. Offer Him yourself, the ‘perfect’ gift for which He most longs. Abandon yourself to His most holy will. What more precious gift can you offer but your love for God!

“We must not give in to weariness: we must spend every minute in loving God. God alone, the maker of heaven and earth, must be our rest and our consolation. The love of God is the only thing we can possess forever: everything else will pass away.”—Saint Joaquina de Vedruna

Using a broad interpretation of the term "pocket", that is where true conversion begins. It is difficult for those fiercely attached to their securities, money, fame, and temporal resources to be a good follower of Christ. When people cannot give to those whom they can see, how can they give to the Lord whom they cannot see?

In today’s Gospel, when Jesus is asked what must be done to achieve eternal life, He tells the inquirer to practice. In faith, as in everyday life, actions are reflections of what we are and what we want of our existence. Following Christ is walking practically with Him in the paths of life. Therefore, it is not possible to be a “non-practicing Catholic” any more than it is for a priest to be a “non-practicing father”.

The man is prepared to gain eternal life by fulfilling the commandments, but Jesus looks at him with affection and demands of him: “Go sell everything you have and give it to the poor, so you will have wealth in heaven, then come and follow me.” The man had kept the commandments, but was his heart detached from the power and love of money? Did he really want eternal life at all costs? It is apparent in the Scripture the man wanted eternal life in addition to his riches. Was he willing to trust Christ only by faith, believing only in His word, without seeing the results of such an option?

Many believe that just by becoming a Christian a person should become happy. However, this is a false idea. Following Jesus is difficult, progressive, fraught with both internal and external storms, and yes, blessed with calm seas as well. In addition to the salvation that Jesus brings us is the constant presence at our side of a good God who loves us above all else and with a love that is beyond any proof. Such a love can only produce happiness in those who welcome it wholeheartedly, without reservation.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are one community nourished and transformed by the Eucharist. As the body of Christ, we are led by the Holy Spirit to know, love and serve God and one another.

Somos una comunidad alimentada y transformada por la Eucaristía. Como cuerpo de Cristo, somos guiados por el Espíritu Santo, para conocer, amar y servir a Dios y unos a otros.
