SAINT JEAN VIANNEY RELIC PILGRIMAGE
Knights of Columbus Holds Nationwide Tour of Curé of Ars Heart

The Shrine of Ars, France, has entrusted to the Knights of Columbus the major relic of Saint Jean Vianney’s incorrupt heart for a national tour in the United States. The tour, which began last year, will conclude in early June.

The Knights of Columbus welcomes this special opportunity to offer for veneration a major relic of the patron of parish priests, whose holiness and integrity is a model for clergy and laity alike.

Arrangements are underway for the Saint Jean Vianney relic to be at Saint Thomas More (Cottonwood Heights) on Friday, March 29. Details are still being confirmed, but current plans are for the Church to open at 1:00 pm for viewing of the relic. Stations of the Cross are scheduled for 7:00 pm and Confessions at 9:00 pm. An Honor Guard will be in attendance.

For more information, call George D’Apuzzo at 435-619-0727.

Something we all seem to place at the top of our Lenten “pledge/resolution list” is prayer.

We intend to pray more intensely. Have we neglected prayer other than when we participate at Mass? During Lent, we make a resolution to pray when we rise, then close our evening before sleep with prayer. This resolved intensity may bring us into church during hours of adoration to spend a brief time with the Lord aside from our daily activities.

We resolve to pray more intently. This can be a tough resolution. Life is filled with noise, distractions, busyness. Family, friends, employers, responsibilities all clamor for our attention. It can be difficult to “find” that time and place of quiet, of solitude, of peace that will afford us a little while to “just be” with the Lord.

Once we escape to that mountaintop that offers us some distance from the hectic pace of our life, we are challenged to make the most of that, perhaps, brief time. We must quiet our minds, open our hearts and give our attention to God who is ready to hear our prayer, answer our needs, and give understanding and meaning to the clutter that often results from the unraveling events of our life.

Jesus is present to us at all times. We are the ones who break stride. We run ahead believing we can handle whatever the day holds, whatever lies before us, forgetting our companion, the One who provides every breath we take. We stumble, then remember.

We lag behind, tired, worn; the path has become too steep, the distance unmanageable. We lag behind, tired, worn; the path has become too steep, the distance unmanageable. Jesus is present to us at all times.

"Jesus... walks before us, to smooth the rough places of our paths; he walks at our side as a faithful companion, to cheer, encourage, console and defend us. He walks behind us, to receive us if we fall. He walks before us, that we may follow and imitate him;... In following him, we cannot wander; in travelling in his company we shall be strong and vigorous; and in keeping us intimately united to him, he takes care to prevent the slightest suspicion that, with such a support, we cannot do and suffer all things." Father Jean-Baptiste Saint-Jure, S.J.

Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. He knocks; all we need do is invite Him in. Lent is the perfect time!

Algo que todos parecemos colocar en la parte superior de nuestra “Lista de resolución / compromiso” de Cuaresma es la oración.

Tenemos la intención de orar más intensamente. ¿Hemos descuidado la oración aparte de cuando participamos en la Misa? Durante la Cuaresma, tomamos una resolución para orar cuando nos levantamos, luego cerramos nuestra noche antes de dormir con la oración. Esta intensidad resuelta puede llevarnos a la iglesia durante horas de adoración para pasar un breve tiempo con el Señor, aparte de nuestras actividades diarias.

Resolvemos orar con más atención. Esto puede ser una resolución difícil. La vida está llena de ruidos, distracciones, ocupaciones. Familia, amigos, empleadores, responsabilidades, todos reclaman nuestra atención. Puede ser difícil “encontrar” ese tiempo y lugar de tranquilidad, de soledad, de paz que nos dará un poco de tiempo para "simplemente estar” con el Señor.

Una vez que escapamos a la cima de la montaña que nos ofrece cierta distancia del ritmo agitado de nuestra vida, tenemos el desafío de aprovechar al máximo ese tiempo, tal vez, breve. Debemos quietar nuestras mentes, abrir nuestros corazones y prestar atención a Dios que está listo para escuchar nuestra oración, responder a nuestras necesidades y dar comprensión y significado al desorden que a menudo resulta de los acontecimientos de nuestra vida.

Jesús está presente para nosotros en todo momento. Nosotras somos los que rompemos el paso. Nos adelantamos creyendo que podemos manejar lo que nos depare el día, lo que se nos presente, olvidando a nuestro compañero, el que nos proporciona cada respiración. Nos tropezamos, entonces recuerda. Nos quedamos atrás, cansados, desgastados; el camino se ha vuelto demasiado empinado, la distancia inmanejable.

Recuerda, levanta tu pesado corazón hacia Jesús, Él está cerca. Él te llevará a la distancia, si le permites.

"Jesús... camina delante de nosotros, para allanar los lugares ásperos de nuestros caminos; Él camina a nuestro lado como un compañero fiel, para animarnos, alentarnos, consolarnos y defendernos. Él camina detrás de nosotros, para recibernos si caemos. Él camina delante de nosotros, para que podamos seguirlo e imitarlo... Al seguirlo, no podemos vaciar; Al viajar en su compañía seremos fuertes y vigorosos; y al mantenernos íntimamente unidos a él, se cuida de evitar la menor sospecha de que, con tal apoyo, no podemos hacer y sufrir todas las cosas". Padre Jean-Baptiste Saint-Jure, S.J.

Jesús es el camino, la verdad y la vida. Él llama todo lo que necesitamos hacer es invitarlo a entrar. ¡La Cuaresma es el momento perfecto!
Pastor’s Message by Father Oscar Martin Picos
Second Sunday of Lent / Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma

The Transfiguration is a foretaste of the glory of the Lord and of our own glory if we abide in Him.

The scene occurs when Jesus is in prayer. For every Christian, prayer can transfigure and transform us because through prayer we obtain the wisdom, grace and joy that make our faces shine.

Jesus appears clothed ineffulgent light. Moses and Elijah are also there, and speak with Him about the death He will suffer in Jerusalem. In the midst of the Transfiguration, Jesus is willing to talk about His suffering.

The Transfiguration is a confirmation of the incarnation. Jesus took our human body but did not abandon His divinity. In the body of Jesus, similar to ours in everything except sin, the glory of divinity was hidden.

The Transfiguration presages the glory of the resurrection. It is an announcement of what will happen to us.

The Transfiguration occurs today and every day in the Eucharist. Every Mass we attend with an authentic spirit given to God has sufficient power to produce a transformation and personal conversion. If each Mass were for us a Tabor, we would already be converted. What happens is that on many occasions, we go up to the mountain to pray but fall asleep. We must learn to pray as Jesus did on the mountain, so that we may be transformed and converted through Him.

Taste of Carmel: Carmelite Spirituality

Some of you have asked, “What is Taste of Carmel all about?” First, what it is not: it is neither a class, nor is it a lecture series. Rather, Taste of Carmel is a monthly gathering, facilitated by a Lay Carmelite, and whose members explore, learn about, and discuss facets of Carmelite spirituality.

Prayer is an important element. Sessions begin with prayer and a communal reflection on Sunday’s Gospel. Also, discussions focus on Carmelite topics such as prayer practices, allegiance to Jesus Christ, the role of Mary, Carmelite writings about living a holy Christian life, and about exemplary Carmelite men and women. Our March session will include the life and writings of Carmelite poet Jessica Powers. Subsequent sessions will spotlight Carmelites Titus Brandsma, Teresa of Avila, and John of St. Samson.

Now is a good time to join Taste of Carmel. Registration is open to both men and women. The next 4 sessions are March 23rd, April 27th, May 18th, and June 22nd from 2:30 – 4:15 pm in the 2nd floor Conference room, Scanlan Hall.

To register, please email your full name, email address, and telephone number to Ruth Ann Pilney: ruthannp46@gmail.com by March 20.
