ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
Jesus is our Shepherd. He is the gate we seek to eternity. He knows each of us and calls us each by name. In and through Jesus, we discover ourselves – who we are called to be and the path we are called to follow.

Stewards firmly believe in six characteristics that mold and form us to know, love and serve God and our neighbor. Jesus is our model of behavior challenging us and, at the same time, rightly directing us according to God’s Holy Will.

Stewards are first “mindful”, living in the present. Unwanted, unnecessary baggage of the past, we leave behind so we may be fully present to the tasks before us. We address our current responsibilities and move forward without fear of where the future may lead.

“Prayerful” depicts a faithful Steward who recognizes every moment, every happening as an opportunity for which to praise and thank God.

Stewards are “grateful” for God’s many gifts and blessings. The smallest, simplest treasures received may be the most meaningful and special ones that touch our hearts. The challenge is to recognize these are God’s gifts to us.

“Gracious” Stewards welcome the good, not so good, and most difficult of God’s creation with a mind and heart open to acceptance and a manner of hospitality that speaks of the nature by which Jesus welcomed and opened Himself to all those who approached Him.

Stewards are “committed” to a way of life where God is our Center. In Him and through Him, we have our being. Without God, we are nothing.

“The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.” (Psalm 23)

Stewards take comfort knowing our Lord is the One to Whom we can turn in both good times and bad. He reaches out to us and takes our hand when life’s challenges, hardships and temptations cause us to stumble and falter along the path. He leads and guides us. He gives us strength and comfort.

“Whether we consciously admit it or not, our faith—our life in Christ—has sustained us throughout the ups and downs of our lives. It has sustained us in moments of new life and in death, at times of sickness, and at those times when we struggle to give meaning to painful situations.”

No matter the challenge or difficult circumstances in which we find ourselves, we have a companion Who is our Courage, Strength and Way. He is the Life we now live and Eternal Life we anticipate.

Jesus es nuestro Pastor. Él es la entrada que buscamos para la eternidad. Él nos conoce a cada uno y nos llama por nuestro nombre. En y a través de Jesús, nos descubrimos a nosotros mismos: quiénes estamos llamados a ser y el camino que debemos seguir.

Los corresponsables creen firmemente en seis características que nos moldean y nos dan para conocer, amar y servir a Dios y a nuestro próximo. Jesús es nuestro modelo de comportamiento que nos desafía y, al mismo tiempo, nos dirige correctamente según la Santa Voluntad de Dios.

Los corresponsables son primero "conscientes", viviendo en el presente. Equipaje innecesario y redundante del pasado, lo dejamos atrás para que podamos estar completamente presentes en las tareas que tenemos ante nosotros. Abordamos nuestras responsabilidades actuales y avanzamos sin temor a dónde nos pueda llevar el futuro.

"Ser piadoso" representa a un corresponsable fiel que reconoce cada momento, cada evento como una oportunidad para alabar y agradecer a Dios.

Los corresponsables están "agradecidos" por los muchos dones y bendiciones de Dios. Los tesoros más pequeños y simples recibidos pueden ser los más significativos y especiales que tocan nuestros corazones. El desafío es reconocer que estos son los regalos de Dios para nosotros.

Los corresponsables "misericordiosos" dan la bienvenida a lo bueno, no tan bueno y lo más difícil de la creación de Dios con una mente y un corazón abiertos a la aceptación y una forma de hospitalidad que habla de la naturaleza por la cual Jesús dio la bienvenida y se abrió a todos los que se le acercaron.

Los corresponsables están "comprometidos" con una forma de vida donde Dios es nuestro centro. En Él y a través de Él, tenemos nuestro ser. Sin Dios, no somos nada.

"El señor es mi Pastor; nada me falta " (Salmo 23)

Los corresponsables se consuelan sabiendo que nuestro Señor es a quien podemos recurrir tanto en los buenos tiempos como en los malos. Se acerca a nosotros y nos toma de la mano cuando los desafíos, las dificultades y las tentaciones de la vida nos hacen tropezar y vacilar en el camino. Él nos guía y nos lleva. Nos da fuerza y consuelo.

"Ya sea que lo admitamos conscientemente o no, nuestra fe, nuestra vida en Cristo, nos ha sostenido a lo largo de los altibajos de nuestras vidas. Nos ha sostenido en momentos de nueva vida y muerte, en momentos de enfermedad y en aquellos momentos en los que luchamos por dar sentido a las situaciones dolorosas ".

No importa el desafío o las circunstancias difíciles en las que nos encontramos, tenemos un compañero que es nuestro coraje, fortaleza y camino. Él es la vida que ahora vivimos y la vida eterna que anticipamos.

1 Meeting God in the Upper Room by Monsignor Peter J. Vaghi

Being stuck with an image of an angry God. “By his wounds you have been healed,” proclaims the second reading. For some, this conjures up images of God the Father needing somehow to be repaid for the sins of the world through the blood of Jesus. And from this perspective it seems to some that God is angry. But there are different interpretations.

Consider that it is not possible to be in heaven and put self above others because in heaven goodness and truth reign. Because goodness reigns, there is no room for scheming, climbing, or manipulating one’s way to the top. These things move people farther from goodness which is top of the heap in heaven. Because truth reigns, there is no room for impressing the boss (God) with amazing talents. Amazing talents tend to realize higher levels of truth than others are capable of doing. God is already beyond higher levels of truth. Power in heaven is living goodness and truth thoroughly. “If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God,” says the second reading.

Given our notions of power, getting ahead, and need to watch out for number one, how will we ever get into heaven? We need to rip these things from our lives and that gets us into trouble. Others will look askance at us, calling us crazy if we try. We will be rejected by others and even by part of ourselves. Being rejected by part of ourselves underscores the great need we have for help in ridding ourselves of things contrary to heaven.

Jesus knew our plight. He was the closer to goodness and truth than anyone else and he knew the costs of such a life in the world. He wasn’t just rejected, he was killed horribly and yet goodness and truth triumphed despite it all. Jesus knew the pain of facing what humanity dreads, the strain of part of us rejecting the substantial demands of goodness and truth. Remember the Garden of Gethsemane and the words he cried from the cross: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? Yet goodness and truth triumphed. Easter affirmed the ways of heaven and showed us that it is possible to rip what is not of heaven from us, but always with the help of God. That is how it is possible to get into heaven. By his wounds we are healed. “For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and the guardian of your souls,” concludes the second reading.

Amen.

Estar atrapado con una imagen de un Dios enojado. "Por sus heridas has sido curado", proclama la segunda lectura. Para algunas personas, esto evoca imágenes de Dios el Padre que necesita de alguna manera ser pagado por los pecados del mundo a través de la sangre de Jesús. Y desde esta perspectiva, a algunos les parece que Dios está enojado. Pero hay diferentes interpretaciones.

Considera que no es posible estar en el cielo y ponerse por encima de los demás porque en el cielo reina la bondad y la verdad. Debido a que reina la bondad, no hay espacio para trazar, escalar o manipular el camino hacia la cima. Estas cosas alejan a las personas de la bondad, que es la cima del cumulo en el cielo. Debido a que la verdad reina, no hay espacio para impresionar al jefe (Dios) con talentos asombrosos. Los talentos maravillosos tienden a darse cuenta de niveles de verdad más altos que otros son capaces de hacer. Dios ya está más allá de los niveles superiores de verdad. El poder en el cielo es vivir la bondad y la verdad a fondo. "Si eres paciente cuando sufres por lo que es bueno, esto es una gracia ante Dios", dice la segunda lectura.

Dadas nuestras nociones de poder, avanzar y tener que estar atentos al número uno, ¿cómo llegaremos al cielo? Necesitamos extraer estas cosas de nuestras vidas y eso nos mete en problemas. Otros nos mirarán con recelo, llamándonos locos si lo intentamos. Seremos rechazados por otros e incluso por parte de nosotros mismos. Ser rechazado por parte de nosotros mismos subraya la gran necesidad que tenemos de ayuda para librarnos de cosas contrarias al cielo.

Jesús conocía nuestra situación. Estaba más cerca de la bondad y la verdad que cualquier otra persona y sabía los costos de tal vida en el mundo. No sólo fue rechazado, fue asesinado horriblemente y, sin embargo, la bondad y la verdad triunfaron a pesar de todo. Jesús conocía el dolor de enfrentar lo que la humanidad teme, la tensión de parte de nosotros rechazando las demandas sustanciales de bondad y verdad. Recuerda el Jardín de Getsemani y las palabras que gritó desde la cruz: Dios mío, Dios mío, ¿por qué me has abandonado? Sin embargo, la bondad y la verdad triunfaron. La Pascua afirmó los caminos del cielo y nos mostró que es posible arrancarnos lo que no es del cielo, sino siempre con la ayuda de Dios. Así es como es posible entrar al cielo. Por sus heridas somos curados. "Porque ustedes eran como ovejas descarriadas, pero ahora han vuelto al pastor y guardián de sus almas", concluye la segunda lectura.

Amén.

Prayer During A Health Crisis

Compassionate and Loving Father,
In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of your presence.
In You allow us to find hope and healing.
Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.
Be with those who lead and give them Your Spirit of wisdom.
Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.
Wrap your arms around our world and hold us in your love.
Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love to all we meet.
We ask this in Your Name.
Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS and EVENTS

GIVING DURING TIME of CRISIS

The time of crisis we are currently experiencing has not eliminated our expenses and need to pay for those services on which we must depend, such as utilities. Parish staff have undergone a reduction in working hours and our priests also have accepted a reduction in monthly monetary assistance.

During this time, your monetary contributions will be so very much appreciated to help us meet our current obligations until the crisis eases. If you are engaged in Online Giving, thank you for your uninterrupted continuing support.

If you would like to mail your contribution, please do so by sending it to Saint George Catholic Church, P.O. Box 188, St. George, UT 84771. You may also personally deliver your contribution to the parish office Monday through Friday from 9 am to 12 Noon.

We appreciate your faithful, ongoing support of our parish and the services we continue to offer during this challenging time.

This weekend’s second collection benefits the Saint George Catholic Church Renovation Projects

If you have Building Fund envelopes, you may use them for this collection. You may also contribute to the Renovation Projects fund through our online giving.

On May 13
Give Blood, Give Life

The Knights of Columbus are holding a Red Cross blood drive on Wednesday, May 13, from 10:30 am to 4:00 pm at the Red Cross Office, 476 E. Riverside Drive Ste B-6.

Due to drive and donor cancellations, the need for blood is great. The Red Cross is taking all precautions to insure the safety of donors.

Sign up for an appointment by going online at redcrossblood.org (using the sponsor keyword “stgeorgeknights”) or contact Tom Witt at thwitt@outlook.com or 435-619-5046.
