Sunday, July 7, 2019 – Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – July 7, 2019

Isaiah 66:14c When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass: the Lord's power shall be known to his servants.

Psalm 66:1 Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Galations 6:14 Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Luke 10:3 Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

On July 1, 2019 I began my second year with you. As you may recall, I began as Administrator of the parish on July first, and then I was appointed pastor on November 1, 2018. This past year has been an enjoyable, yet challenging one for me. I consider it a great privilege to be here as your priest and have the opportunity to get to know so many of you. I extend my sincere thanks for your many kindnesses to me over the past year and especially to those who have generously cooperated with me in advancing the cause of Christ. I am glad to recommit myself to a life of service for the sake of this little portion of the Lord's flock and invite you to join with me. Let us pray for each other and support each other. That is the only way to build up the kingdom of God.

In the gospel for Mass this Sunday we hear the frank reflections of Jesus on the nature of the ministry that you and I share. He states clearly that "the harvest is great but the laborers are few." When I first heard that passage as a boy, I began to discern my vocation to become a priest. We should encourage all of our boys to consider the priesthood and our girls to consider religious life. Religious life or the priesthood are wonderful vocations and many more could be very happy in this way of life. Let us pray for more responses to the vocations of priesthood and religious life, just as we pray for holy and devout Catholic families.

We are all called to a life of Holiness. All are called to be like missionaries in the world. Each Christian has his or her part to play to bring souls to Christ. Often we are reminded that we must examine our consciences and consider how we are using our time, talents, and treasures for the sake of the kingdom of God. How can I say the Church is not what it should be, when I give little to make it shine? The powers of darkness are well financed and staffed. The Christian army is underfunded and limited in doing God's work. Often our hands are tied because as the Lord said "the harvest is great but the laborers are few." Let each one do his or her part all for the greater honor and glory of God.

Yours in the Lord,
Fr. Mark G. Mazza, Pastor

"I am not capable of doing big things, but I want to do everything, even the smallest things, for the greater glory of God."

—Saint Dominic Savio, Schoolboy Saint and Model of Youth, age 14

MISSION APPEAL ANNOUNCEMENT

During the weekend of July 13-14, 2019, Reverend Alwin Furtado, CSSp, will visit our parish to speak at the Masses about the missionary work of the Church and in particular that of the Spiritans (Congregation of the Holy Spirit, previously known as the Holy Ghost Fathers).

This visit is part of a national program in which annually a representative of one of the missionary groups visits parishes of the Archdiocese to invite the parish to share in the mission work of the universal Church. To learn more about the Spiritans, please visit their website at <http://spiritans.org>. Fr. Al is a missionary priest from Ireland, presently ministering in a parish in Millbrae, CA.

When Jesus said: “You shall witness to me in Jerusalem and in Samaria and to the ends of the earth”, He made the spread of the Gospel an essential part of our Catholic life. We urge you to respond generously to Father Al’s appeal.

New Beginnings: A Catholic Divorce Ministry

Ed Hopfner 415-614-5547 hopfnere@sfarch.org
www.newbeginningsf.info

The Archdiocese strives to make known Christ's healing love, so that all who suffer from separation or divorce might experience new life, reconciliation, and restoration, and by meeting people in a similar position may find help to rebuild their own lives. We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church's compassion; they are also ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world. New Beginnings Ministry offers these support groups:

- First and Third Wednesdays, 7:00 pm: St. Brendan Church, Parish Center, 29 Rockaway Ave., San Francisco. Contact Diana (415-929-0999 / dianamwild@gmail.com) or Martin (650-739- 6446) for more information.
- Second Friday each month, 6:30 pm: St. Hilary Parish, 761 Hilary Dr., Tiburon. Contact Karen (415-250-2597).
- Third Friday each month, 7:00 pm: A Spanish-speaking group at Our Lady of Loretto, 1806 Novato Blvd., Novato. Contact Victoria (702-460-3116).
