

Twenty-Fifth Sunday In Ordinary Time ^(A)

Hymnal 1181

I am the salvation of the people, says the LORD. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their LORD forever.

Congregational Refrain

Be our — sal - va - tion, O Lord, for - ev - er.

Give ear, my people, to my teaching; incline your ear to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable and utter hidden lessons of the past.

...

The things we have heard and understood, the things our fathers have told us, these we will not hide from their children but will tell them to the next generation: the glories of the Lord and his might, and the marvelous deeds he has done.

...

He established a decree in Jacob; in Israel he set up a law.

To our fathers he gave a command to make it known to their children, that the next generation might know it, the children yet to be born..

They should arise and declare it to their children, that they should set their hope in God, and never forget God's deeds, but keep every one of his commands.
