From the Teacher's Desk:

In your child's red folder will be the first trimester interims. Please sign and return at your earliest convenience. Please remember to sign your child's homework notification form too. Your signature ensures that you have seen this one snapshot of your child's week. This acknowledges you are aware of any missing work, test grades below a 70%, or if all work was submitted on time. This paper is also a great place to put any questions you may have. Oftentimes, if a parent writes in the agenda, I will not see it if a child doesn't call it to my attention.

Current topics of study:

- Science - the solar system
- Social Studies - 5 regions of Virginia
- L. Arts: Mighty Jackie , digraph spelling patterns, compound subject and predicates, organization in writing
- Religion - examination of consciences

As always, if you have any questions, do no hesitate to reach out to me,
