Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 4, 2021

Prayer for Our Pastorate

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Good and gracious God, we give you thanks for the gifts you have bestowed on the faith families of St. Joseph and St. John the Baptist. Please lead us with patience and perseverance as we build and grow our pastorate.

We are uniting in your heart with faith and recognition that our desire is your will.

May all we do strengthen our faith with a sacrificial and cooperative spirit as we build your church together.

We ask these things in the name of your Son Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God almighty Father.

Lord, Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord, God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

Reading 1

Acts 10: 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: “You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118

℟ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.

Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.” ℟

“The right hand of the Lord has struck with power;
the right hand of the Lord is exalted.

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the Lord.” ℟
The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the Lord has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes. ℟

Reading 2

Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in god. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Gospel Acclamation

Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

Gospel

John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.
