St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

Please join us for coffee and fellowship following Mass in the parish hall.

A message from Father Vieira.....

Have you noticed that the predominant theme in the media of late has been fear? We are told to be afraid of wars, famines, plagues, high cholesterol, sunlight, pandemics, and even each other. Yet Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that we are not to be afraid. He assures us that we are loved by God more dearly than we can possibly imagine. It is important to note that the sparrow which our Heavenly Father knows so still falls to the ground. Difficulty will come our way, it is promised. Jesus asks us, no commands us, to not be afraid when these difficulties occur. We should face these difficulties in a spirit of trust, not fear!

Did you know that demons are named for the vice or negative emotion that they incite? Fear is not of God. Perhaps that is why Jesus continually commands us to “be not afraid,” and to “fear not.” We should not fear that which kills the body. This false fear should be resisted. Every vice has a counter virtue. Jesus reminds us often that He gives us His peace. “My peace I leave with you . . .” How can we have this peace? By trusting Him. We were reminded of His great love this week as we celebrated the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We must trust His love!

What about Jesus' comment to fear what kills the body and the soul? How can we have peace when he speaks of that fear? We should fear, or have a healthy respect, for God and His commandments. His perfect justice can send the unrepentant, body and soul, into eternal punishment. However, His Sacred Heart was pierced for us on the Cross to save us from that punishment. So, even as He mentions this fear of God, He goes on to tell us that the very hairs on our head are numbered. God's love is so great that he knows he knows the smallest details of our lives. God loves the sparrows and knows when they fall to the ground, and if His love is so great for the least of His creation, how much more for the pinnacle of His creation, humanity?

Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in you!

Who Are We?!

Holy Nativity Catholic Church is a member of an administrative structure [“ordinariate”] under the Roman Catholic Church offering one of three forms of the Mass in the Latin Rite. With guidance and encouragement of Pope Benedict XVI, we were formed to accommodate the traditions of the Anglican communities as they entered in the Catholic Church, in full communion with Rome. All Catholics are welcome!
