Welcome!

We graciously welcome all new parishioners and visitors to our community. To register please fill out a registration form available at church entrances. Please drop it in the collection basket or at the office. A member of our ministry team will contact you to complete your registration.

Baptism

Baptismal preparation is offered and required for parents of children to be baptized in our churches. Please contact Mary Ann Kozak, for an initial interview and baptismal preparation.

Holy Matrimony

Couples must contact Mary Ann Kozak, at least six months prior to the celebration. Marriage preparation prerequisites must be fulfilled before the celebration of marriage.

RCIA/RCIC

Those interested in becoming Catholic or wishing to complete their Christian initiation through the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist are asked to call or email Mary Ann Kozak.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

This Sacrament is available for individuals upon request, and communal celebrations are periodically scheduled.

Ministry to the Sick

Please call or email Fr. Daniel concerning the needs of the sick, hospitalized or shut-ins. Those unable to attend Mass may have Communion brought to them.

Praying the Mass

LENT
Pray + Fast + Give

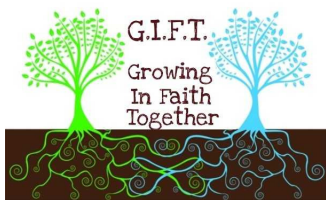

Our Lenten journey is a journey towards freedom from the wounds that imprison us, the sins that burden us, and the ways in which we hurt our relationships with God, with ourselves and with others. In this journey towards freedom, the Church has always recommended three practices: prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Among the practices of Lent, prayer is the most important, for it goes to heal our fundamental relationship, our relationship with God. The most important prayer we participate in is Mass. During Lent, make it a point to attend Mass on Sunday and if you are able even on weekdays. When you come to Mass, make sure it is truly an experience of prayer for you by participating actively. What prayer intentions do you bring to Mass? Are there things you want to give thanks for? Are there things you want to ask for? Are there things you want to ask forgiveness for? What is God saying to you through the readings? What is God inviting you to? How is God reassuring you of God's love and offering you the strength you need to get through another week? etc.

To help you be more intentional at Mass during Lent, we will be asking our greeters to hand out the hymnals at the entrance of church with a guide to the numbers for the readings and songs; please make sure you get them as you enter. We will also refrain from putting out or giving out the bulletins before Mass, so that if you have a few minutes to spare before Mass, instead of being distracted reading the bulletin, you can use them to pray and prepare your heart for the celebration of Mass and so that the bulletin does not become a source of distraction even during Mass. As we leave the church, we ask that you do not leave the hymnals in the pews but instead bring them back to the greeters as you exit, and at that point they will be distributing the Bulletin, so you can take it home and make it part of your Sunday reading.

Please participate actively, respond, pray and sing. We give God at least this one hour a week, and God through the Mass comes down to meet us; Jesus makes himself truly present upon the Altar—let us too make an effort to be truly present to God during Mass.

Parish News and Events

Lenten Book Read

You are invited to read about and try out some great methods of prayer this Lent and Easter Season. We will read the book, Busy Lives and Restless Souls. Books can be purchased at the church for $5. Each parish will offer a book discussion group.

- At All Saints we will meet three times in Lent and twice during the Easter season to discuss and practice prayer methods introduced in the book. We will meet on three Wednesday evenings in Lent: March 20 and 27 and April 10, and again on April 24 and May 1 at 6:45 pm in the church. For more information and to let us know that you will be participating in the discussion and prayer time on Wednesdays, please email Diane Schafer at diane3@twcny.rr.com.
- Holy Cross will offer an opportunity to slowly read and discuss the book. Participants will meet for ten weeks (a chapter a week) starting April 3 and ending June 5. The group will meet Wednesdays at 10:00-11:30am in Cleary Hall. If you can't make all ten, come when you can. The topic for the week will be in the bulletin.
- At Saint Anthony we will meet after Mass on Saturday March 9, 16, 23, and 30, April 6 and 13.

Holy Communion for the Sick, Shut-in and Elderly

If you know of anyone who cannot come to church and would like to have communion brought to them, please email or call Fr. Daniel with their information at fr.daniel.ruiz@dor.org or (607) 288-2350.

Do You Crochet, Knit and/or Sew?

Now is the time to start baby blankets for the collection on Mother's Day to support Birthright. All Saints parish has always been a great contributor of crib blankets, quilts, receiving blankets, bibs, baby towels/cloths, shampoos, lotions, onesies, pj's, clothing, etc. for infants and young children. A box of yarn (and for donations of yarns) will be in the Parish Center lobby. Anything made with your hands and from your heart will be greatly appreciated by the babies' parents. Questions? Call Joan Hass at 280-0110.

Catholics Speak Out for Justice: Equal Rights for Farmworkers

You can be a voice for justice TODAY. In the words of the NYS Catholic Conference, "There is no legitimate reason for treating farmworkers inequitably." Today you can support justice for farmworkers by signing our Diocese-wide petition to our state elected officials in favor of the Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act. This bill would give tens of thousands of farmworkers in our State equal labor rights. Put your faith into action. Stand with them and take the time to sign the petition.

Looking to Adopt

A childless couple at All Saints is very eager to adopt one or more children. If you know of an expectant mother or couple who may be open to adoption by a loving Catholic family, please email: givethemalovingfamily@gmail.com.

Lansing Lions Pancake Breakfast

The Lansing Lions will be hosting their annual Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, March 10, 2019 from 7:30–11:30 am at the Lansing Community Center, 29 Auburn Rd., Lansing, NY 14882. Breakfast includes pancakes with real maple syrup, sausage, scrambled eggs, home fries, juice, coffee, tea and hot chocolate. Adults $7.00, children 6-12 $5.00, and children under 6 are free. All proceeds benefit community projects and the scholarship fund for graduating seniors at Lansing High School.
