Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Year C

Welcome!

We graciously welcome all new parishioners and visitors to our community. To register please fill out a registration form available at church entrances. Please drop it in the collection basket or at the office. A member of our ministry team will contact you to complete your registration.

Baptism

Baptismal preparation is offered and required for parents of children to be baptized in our churches. Please contact Mary Ann Kozak, for an initial interview and baptismal preparation.

Holy Matrimony

Couples must contact Mary Ann Kozak, at least six months prior to the celebration. Marriage preparation prerequisites must be fulfilled before the celebration of marriage.

RCIA/RCIC

Those interested in becoming Catholic or wishing to complete their Christian initiation through the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist are asked to call or email Mary Ann Kozak.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

This Sacrament is available for individuals upon request, and communal celebrations are periodically scheduled.

Ministry to the Sick

Please call or email Fr. Daniel concerning the needs of the sick, hospitalized or shut-ins. Those unable to attend Mass may have Communion brought to them.

Be lifted up...

As human beings, we lose our peace and suffer over many things. God is not indifferent to our suffering and wants to call us to peace. Through Jesus' life, suffering, death and resurrection, God takes on all that makes humanity suffer and lifts it up, filling it with meaning and transforming it into the very vehicle of our salvation.

Do you struggle to make sense of your life and your struggles? Lift up your eyes to look at Jesus Christ. In Him, the mystery of our life is revealed to us; in Him the meaning of all, the hidden work of God under the surface of our lives, is uncovered for us so we no longer have to ask "why?".

Among the things that make us suffer are humiliation, guilt, pain, and change. Join us for our Holy Week celebration and experience how Jesus takes upon himself all these realities and lifts them up, see your life reflected in Jesus' life, and make sense of what God is doing in your life.

None of this makes sense to you? Just come for Holy Week, and we will help you understand a little more.

If you will be in town, make sure to attend all of our Holy Week Celebrations. If you are going away for the school break, we wish you a restful time, and I encourage you to find a Catholic Church at your destination and make the Holy Week celebrations part of your day. What can bring more rest and peace than to be able to contemplate our lives in God's love and to allow Jesus to lift us up?

Wishing all a blessed Holy Week and a very Happy Easter, A.M.D.G., Father Daniel

Parish News and Events

Our Lenten Book Read

Holy Cross: Wednesdays at 10-11:30am in the Hall. This week's discussion: Chapter 3, Beginning a New Identity.

A special "thank you" and praises to all who made St. Patrick's dinner a success at All Saints Church. We all shared a fantastic meal by our in-parish chefs, had bread and cookies from our church bakers, adorned the kids with tattoos by the teens, had crews to set-up, decorate, greet, serve and clean-up. Good cheer was bountiful among families, friends and community. The Irish dancers thrilled us all with lively dance steps! The profit from the dinner was $1,372.87.

Easter Bake Sale

St. Anthony's Parish Life Committee will be holding a Bake Sale at the First National Bank of Groton on Saturday, April 20, at 9:00am. Attention St.A. Heavenly

Bakers — please plan to drop off some baked goodies at the Bank that morning.

Days for Girls

Everyone is invited to help create Days for Girls kits on April 26-27 from 10:00am-5:00pm at All Saints Parish Hall. Let's make a big difference in the lives of girls all over the world.

There will be no Bingo at All Saints this year

Samaritan Center Collection

April is St. Anthony's month to collect personal care products for Catholic Charities Samaritan Center. Please look for the collection basket in the vestibule.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Deacon George will be leading a Divine Mercy Service on Sunday, April 28 at 3:00pm at Holy Cross Church. All are invited.
