Week of July 7
Kindness

“Like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.” 1 Peter 2:5

This summer we will be reflecting on the various gifts and fruits of the Spirit that build up the Church. Our families received a package of 16 wrapped blocks at our Pentecost Celebration at Myers Park. If you do not have one please take one of the gift bags in the back of the church. Each week, one block will be unwrapped and the gift or the fruit revealed. This week we will unwrap the fifth block you received and find the word KINDNESS on it.

Sometime this week, take 15 minutes and either on your own or with your family, invite the Holy Spirit to come to your household:

Come, Holy Spirit. Fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

After offering this prayer, reflect on the following:

KNOW (Mind/Knowledge/Memory):

What is Christian KINDNESS?

Kindness seems rather self-explanatory, doesn't it? Be kind. Yet what does that mean? So often we seem to regard “kindness” as merely the absence of being mean: I didn't tease you, therefore I am kind; I held the door for you, so I am kind. Do you tend to do acts of kindness, or are you more likely to just refrain from acts of meanness?

The word kindness comes from the Greek word chrestotes (khray-stot-ace), which meant to show kindness or to be friendly to others, and it often depicted rulers, governors, or people who were kind, mild, and benevolent to their subjects. Anyone who demonstrated this quality of chrestotes was considered to be compassionate, considerate, sympathetic, humane, kind, or gentle. The apostle Paul uses this word to depict God's incomprehensible kindness for people who didn't know Christ (see Romans 11:22; Ephesians 2:7; Titus 3:4). When the word chrestotes is applied to interpersonal relationships, it conveys the idea of being adaptable to others rather than requiring everyone to adapt to your own needs.

LOVE (Heart/Understanding/Understanding):

Accepting the fruit of KINDNESS into our hearts

Kindness is doing something and not expecting anything in return. It is respect and helping others without waiting for someone to help one back. Kindness describes the ability to act for the welfare of those taxing our patience. Kindness can also seem quite unnatural; when we have been hurt or offended, we usually want to react in anger or bitterness. But kindness leads us to do just the opposite — to respond with love and forgiveness (Ephesians 4:32).

SERVE (Hands/Wisdom/Will):

Putting our KINDNESS in service of the church, humanity, and the world

Your words, your actions, and your attitude...these are all things in which you have the opportunity to choose kindness. Kindness will not always be the easiest choice. In fact, sometimes kindness will be the hardest choice. But it's always the right choice.

This week you might try one or more of the following:

- Express caring concern for someone you encounter,
- Pass on your favorite book or leave it in a public place for someone else to find,
- Truly listen when someone is talking to you,
- Be kind to yourself: Notice how you talk to yourself about yourself. If it seems negative, ask yourself if you would say this to a good friend and notice what happens.

Question of the Week:
How has the Holy Spirit
brought kindness into your life?

A special thank you to all who participated in our faith formation survey, that was made available both online and in paper copies at the back of our churches. Now we will start planning for September based on your feedback.

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prayer for Independence Day

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

Help us to continue a good work begun long ago.

Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.

Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Please join the Pope in praying for the following intention during the month of July 2019:

The Integrity of Justice

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

Holy Cross Garage Sale Update

Thank you to everyone who has already contributed items to include in the fundraiser garage sale that Holy Cross will be holding in our church parking lot on Friday, July 19 (9am-5pm) and Saturday, July 20 (9am-3pm). This sale will be part of the wider Yellow Barn Community Garage sale that is happening those two days. We will be accepting items in the rectory garage after Sunday Mass through Sunday, July 13. After that time, items will be accepted directly at the sale itself on Friday 7/19. (And larger items, such as furniture, should be dropped off no earlier than 7/19, as we're already tight on space in the garage.) If you have any questions, please contact Eveline Ferretti (evelineferretti@gmail.com) or Barb Finney. And remember to drop by the garage sale itself—lots of very nice home, garden and automotive items available at very good prices! We thank you for your help and support!
