ALL SAINTS ACADEMY
CO-SPONSORING PARISHES AND PASTORS BOARD

When founded in 2009, All Saints Academy was united in purpose and law as a co-sponsored school of three Catholic parishes of Parsippany: Saint Ann Parish, Saint Christopher Parish and Saint Peter the Apostle Parish. In 2019, Saint Pius X Parish of Montville joined the All Saints Academy organization.

The Pastors Board is responsible for the oversight of all school functions. The Board is led by the school's Canonical Pastor which is the Pastor of Saint Ann Parish. The Pastors Board also collaborates with the Diocese of Paterson Catholic Schools Office to provide shared oversight of the school operation. The Principal contributes to the efforts of the Pastors Board.

The pastors of the four parishes work together formally through a Pastors Board which meeting three times per year to discuss and review the progress of the school. Chairpersons of the Finance Committee, the Education Council, the Marketing Committee and the Home and School Association provide the Pastors Board with current information about their efforts and activities within the school community.

Current Pastors Board Members include:

Rev. Edgar Rivera - Chairperson and Pastor of Saint Ann Parish
Rev. Joseph Buffardi, Pastor of Saint Christopher Parish
Rev. David Pickens, Pastor of Saint Peter the Apostle Parish
Rev. Mark Olenowski, Pastor of Saint Pius X Parish
