Small Kindnesses By Danusha Laméris

I've been thinking about the way,
 when you walk down a crowded aisle,
 people pull in their legs to let you by.
 Or how strangers still say "bless you"
 when someone sneezes,
 a leftover from the Bubonic plague.
 "Don't die," we are saying.
 And sometimes, when you spill lemons
 from your grocery bag, someone else will help you pick them up. Mostly, we don't want to harm each other.
 We want to be handed our cup of coffee hot,
 and to say thank you to the person handing it. To smile at them and for them to smile back. For the waitress to call us honey when
 she sets down the bowl of clam chowder,
 and for the driver in the red pick-up truck to let us pass.
 We have so little of each other, now.
 So far from tribe and fire.
 Only these brief moments of exchange.
 What if they are the true dwelling of the holy,
 These fleeting temples we make together
 when we say, "Here, have my seat,"
 "Go ahead — you first," "I like your hat."

October 4th is the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi

“And there is this fact of the twelve baskets: why twelve? What does it mean? Twelve is the number of the tribes of Israel, symbolically it represents all the people. And this tells us that when food is shared equally, with solidarity, nobody is devoid of the necessary, each community can meet the needs of the poorest. Human ecology and environmental ecology go hand in hand.”

The Gift of Our Guardian Angels

It's good to know we're not alone. This October 2nd we celebrate the feast of our guardian angels. This ancient belief has roots in Scripture. In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus implies the special guiding care of the angels. "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my heavenly Father" (Matthew 18:10). Our guardian angels are given to us by God to protect and watch over us from the moment of our conception until the hour of death. Let's pray together to our own heavenly help: Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side to light, to guard, to rule, and to guide. Amen.
