Dear Parishioners,

Helen Keller once wrote, “Alone we can do so little. Together we can do so much.” I am impressed by how so many of our faith community came together to make this Christmas Season so beautiful, meaningful, and enriching for so many. I am grateful for Sr. Bernadette & the Liturgy Committee, for the Massoud’s gifts of lush greenery, for Ron Baker’s creativity with Angels that line our Church and Nativity scenes that are touchable, for Sean and the Music Ministry and the depth of beauty of the Christmas music, for our Altar Servers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, and Ushers that assisted Fr. Buehler and me during our Masses, for our Visitors to the Homebound & those in Nursing Homes, for Judy Kahler’s preparation of gifts to those who are homebound, for the children who so wonderfully re-enacted the Christmas Story & those volunteers that made it happen, for our staff that enable all of this to come together in such a beautiful gift for the Catholic Community of the Sauquoit Valley, and for all of you who joined in praise and worship of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Helen Keller was right...”together we can do so much.”

Happy New Year!

Blessings, Fr. Arthur

Our next class will be held on JANUARY 12.

We may walk many roads when we search for God, and He leads us all the while. The men we honor today were not Jews. The Messiah wasn't coming for them, not in the minds of Jesus' contemporaries. These men were astrologers. They were adept at reading portents in the sky, a practice condemned in the Mosaic covenant. Still, to the best of their knowledge and awareness, they were seeking the truth. This truth led them to journey from their own homeland to honor a king they'd never met, one they couldn't be sure truly existed. "We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." Who do you know seeks God so tenaciously?

"Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem," the Gospel tells us. Who are the seekers in your own life? Maybe it's your cautiously curious co-worker, the neighbor who unexpectedly found peace on a yoga retreat, or your desperately angry child who has chosen, for now, to go their own way. Perhaps they're not overtly headed for Jesus now, not yet. But they may well be seekers of truth in ways we didn't expect. Our invitation is to listen, inquire, and give directions when appropriate.

The magi and modern-day seekers can inspire us as well. When is the last time you sought God's truth so tenaciously? As believers, it can perhaps be easy to become desensitized to the Christmas season and to the miraculous reality we recently celebrated. Mass may have been lovely, but so was the succulent roast beef, the crisp smell of evergreen, and the warm glow of family. Consider asking yourself, "God, do I know you as well as I should? Would I journey as far as the magi to meet You, if I could? Do I journey to meet You daily in prayer? What do those answer say about me, and about our relationship?" Perhaps we, like the magi, can once again be "overjoyed" at seeing the Light of the World.
