Lighter Side

Bored Meeting...After a long, dry sermon, the pastor announced that he wished to meet with the church board following the close of the service. The first man to arrive and greet the minister was a total stranger. "You misunderstood," the priest said. "This is a meeting of board members." "I know," said the man, "but if there is anyone here more bored than I am, I'd like to meet him."

Adam's Ribs...One weekend at Sunday School, they were teaching how God created everything, including human beings. Little Johnny seemed especially intent when they told him how Eve was created out of one of Adam's ribs. Later in the week his mother noticed him lying down as though he were ill, and asked him, "Johnny, what is the matter?" "I have pain in my side," Johnny responded. "I think I'm going to have a wife."

The Army of the Lord...A man was coming out of church one Easter morning, and the pastor was standing at the door as always to shake hands. He grabbed the man by the hand and pulled him aside. The pastor said to him, "Son, we need you to join the Army of the Lord!" The man replied, "I'm already in the Army of the Lord, Father." "Then how come I don't see you except at Christmas and Easter?" the pastor questioned. He whispered back, "I'm in the secret service."

Prayer of Spiritual Communion:

The grace of the sacrament of Holy Communion is available to you through a genuine desire to receive it. After praying the Our Father, please pray the following:

Jesus, we believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
We love You above all things,
and we desire to receive You into our souls.
Since we cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into our hearts.
We embrace You as if You were already there and unite ourselves wholly to You.
Never permit us to be separated from You. Amen.

If we do not wear the right pair of glasses, we can get all too easily caught up in the superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really matter. The kingdom of God is like the pearl of great price that is worth selling everything for so that it can be obtained. Based on where I invest my time and energy each day, I really wonder whether I am serving God's kingdom or my own. Have you ever considered tracking how you spend your time? You may be surprised! We allow our agendas to set the clock of our lives. We forget that joy and a true sense of purpose are not going to be found in following that timepiece. Joy is the expression of the happiness that is discovered when living in the kingdom of God. When our agenda matches God, not only do we leap for joy but God leaps with delight as well. Our well-being is what matters most to God.

Can you imagine God delighting in you? It is easy to deaden our senses to the whole reality of God and the joy that living the Gospel can bring. The demands of secular life and the agendas competing for our attention can quickly do that. We can get tired and spiritually apathetic. But if we can see our way through all of the conflicting voices and hear the voice of God, we can rediscover our zeal and passion and redirect our efforts. When we begin to see as God sees, we can rise each day and notice what really needs our attention and embrace it with exuberance. Be careful, though. It may not be what we originally had on our list. Responding to it, however, will be worth putting everything else aside. LPI
