Join me in wishing Mary Ann Knapp a warm welcome as our new Catechetical Leader. Mary Ann, a life-long parishioner, has a background in education, catechesis, and knowledge of our faith community. Please support Mary Ann in this new effort. We are grateful that Lynn Springer will assist Mary Ann during this time of transition.

Question:
Why do we kneel at Mass?

Answer:

Since the beginnings of the Church, kneeling has been a key posture of prayer. We see Sts. Peter and Paul in the Acts of the Apostles kneeling in prayer. Early in the 4th century, the Council of Nicea prohibited kneeling on Sundays and special feasts. Kneeling began more as a posture of penance for our sins, but in the history of the Church, it has become more a posture of reverence and solemn prayer.

You will notice that the times we kneel at Mass are tied to the consecration of the holy Eucharist. We kneel in both anticipation of what will occur and then in awe of what has taken place: Jesus Christ becomes truly present to us under the guise of bread and wine. The profoundness of this event has over time led the Church to mandate in the current General Instruction of the Roman Missal that kneeling is the only posture allowed during this time. The sheer awesomeness of the holy Eucharist leads us to fall to our knees in wonder and thanksgiving. ©LPi

What's Your Hearth Cake?

“Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you.” I’ve been to a lot of meetings in my years of work in the Church, and you can take my word for it: the ones with snacks just seem to go better.

I don’t know what it is exactly. Maybe it’s just that people are in a more agreeable mood if you show up with donuts. Or maybe it’s about the very real sense of community and camaraderie that is created at a table where people are engaging in that most human of tasks — eating — beside one another. I think a big part of it comes down to the simple fact that we’re all just nicer people when we’re fed.

This rings true spiritually, too. We simply must remain fed if we, in turn, are to feed others. Think of a time when you have neglected your relationship with God — when you haven’t fed yourself with whatever it is that you need to remain committed to the journey of a Christian life. Is it Mass attendance? Is it prayer or Scripture reading? Is it time with your small group, or conversation with a trusted friend who knows your soul? What sustains your ability to be a good disciple, a good steward? What inspires you to give more freely, to love more abundantly?

Whatever it is, that’s your hearth cake. That’s your jug of water. Don’t neglect it. The Angel of the Lord is nudging you in your sleep: “Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you.”

A Prayer to Be Open to God's Will

Good and gracious God,
 I know that life can be unpredictable.
 Sometimes I know what is good and right,
 but I don't have the courage to do it.
 Sometimes I am so busy with my own affairs,
 I forget to see the needs of people in front of me.
 Sometimes I am set in my own ways,
 and I resist growing and learning.

Help me, Lord, to be open to Your will.
 When You prompt me to do the right thing,
 give me the courage to do it.
 When those around me need my help,
 give me Your heart to love them.
 When I'm stuck in my own ways, give me the grace to grow closer to You every day.
 Give me the trust and confidence of Mary.
 Let it be done unto me according to Your word!
 Amen.

Be Prepared for Next Sunday

A good prayer practice to get into is to reflect on the Scripture readings for the upcoming Sunday.

Revelations 11:19; 12:1-6, 10 ~ Ps 45:10-16
1 Corinthians 15:20-27 ~ Luke 1:39-56

Take some time out, read them slowly and prayerfully, & ask yourself what God might want you to get out of them. Want to read them online? Go to: usccb.org/bible/readings
