Next Sunday is the beginning of Advent. Advent is a season of journeying together, and like Mary & Joseph traveling among the crowds to Bethlehem, we too are eagerly anticipating the coming of Jesus.

Do you have a Favorite Sister of St. Francis or Sister of St. Joseph?

Sr. Mary Nicholas,
Sr. Margaret Woods,

Or another Sister?

These women of God served the needs of the Sauquoit Valley in many different ways. This year, the Syracuse Diocese will sponsor the annual Retirement Fund for Religious collection through the US Conference of Bishops. The funds raised are distributed to religious communities of men and women. Assisting these communities to care for their elderly, frail and retired members of their congregations is the goal of this fund. Our 2nd Collection on December 4 & 5 will go towards this fund. Please be as generous as you are able.

Preparing the Manger

Where do you fall in the “Christmas-songs-in-November” debate — do you like them, tolerate them, or outright hate them?

There’s no theological problem with Christmas songs in November outside of worship, even if it’s not everyone’s cup of tea. But there is a problem with getting so caught up in the baggage of the season — the trimmings, the gifts, the celebrations, all of which are marvelous in their own way — that you forget to prepare the manger.

Every good Catholic knows that Lent is a penitential season. It’s hard to miss that point — Lent doesn’t even have any fun songs you can groove to on the radio. We are pretty good at recognizing that Lent calls us to examine ourselves. To deny ourselves. To give of ourselves. And most of all, Lent calls us to prepare, as a good steward does, for the return of our master.

It’s harder for us to remember that with Advent, but Advent is just as much of an opportunity for penance, preparation, and reconciliation to God — and just as much reason, too. The very name of the season — “advent” — encourages us to focus on what is coming, not what is already here. Be on guard, the readings tell us today, “so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and (the coming of the Lord) catch you unexpectedly, like a trap.”

So let us not forget — our master’s advent is upon us. And let us ask ourselves: how can we prepare the manger?

Be Prepared for Next Sunday

A good prayer practice to get into is to reflect on the Scripture readings for the upcoming Sunday.

Baruch 5:1-9 ~ Psalm 126:1-6
Philemon 1:4-6, 8-11 ~ Luke 3:1-6

Take some time out, read them slowly and prayerfully, & ask yourself what God might want you to get out of them. Want to read them online? Go to: usccb.org/bible/readings
