World Mission Sunday 10/19 & 10/20: It is a day we recommit ourselves to our common vocation through Baptism, to be missionary disciples. Your prayers and generous gifts to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, Latin America and Eastern Europe will help missionaries offer the poor of these areas practical help. The missionaries share the mercy of God and connect us with people in need around the world. The second collection next weekend will be donated to any or all of the charities of your choosing. An envelope is attached to this bulletin for your convenience.

The month of October is "Lick Domestic Violence" month. In two weeks, October 26 & 27 representatives of the St. Patrick's Council of Catholic Women will accept your kind monetary donations to help address domestic violence. The donations will be sent to Safe Haven Domestic Abuse Woman's Shelter in Shawano.

BOX OF JOY – the CCD program and parish are signed up for the Box of Joy project. This will be in place of the annual Christmas program. Brunch will still be served immediately following Mass on Dec. 15th. We hope you will gather with the church community for this event. We will soon receive the kit for the project, and more information will be available next week. In the meantime, please look over the attached list to see what you would like to gift to children who have nothing. Religious articles are more than welcome, such as homemade rosaries, crosses, etc. We are signed up for 25 boxes to fill. www.boxofjoy.org
