The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Presider:

We hand ourselves over to God the Father who judges justly, and with hearts filled with confidence we now pray:

Lector:

Our response is: Lord hear our prayer.

That the Church may always remain a steadfast symbol of God's light to humanity and His continued love for the world,
We pray to the Lord.

For an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life for our diocese and that God will raise up good shepherds in our midst,
We pray to the Lord.

That our parish may grow in holiness and in dedication to evangelization,
We pray to the Lord.

That in the saving power of Jesus' name the hungry may be satisfied, the stranger may be welcomed, and the unborn may be protected,
We pray to the Lord.

That each of us may truly live in the Easter spirit and be grateful for the new life given to us through Jesus' death and resurrection,
We pray to the Lord.

For those who have gone astray like sheep: that they will hear the voice of the Good Shepherd, the guardian of their souls,
We pray to the Lord.

That the faithful departed may rest for all eternity in the loving embrace of the Lord,
We pray to the Lord.

Presider:

God our Father, you care for us with your compassion. Answer our prayers, grant us your grace, and keep us close to the true Shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
