Thank You!

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your recent check of $1,722. This amount represents the 2019 Mission Cooperative Plan collection taken up in your parish the weekend of 9/1/19 for the benefit of The Servants of the Plan of God. We have a great tradition in the Archdiocese of hospitality to visiting Priests, Religious and Lay Missionaries and I am especially grateful to you for your kind reception of these Missionaries. Thank you for keeping this spirit of charity alive in New York.

Again thank you for your support in what the Second Vatican Council called "the greatest and holiest week of the Church."

Sincerely,

Rev. Monsignor Marc J. Filacchione

“I remind you to stir into flame the gift of God you have through the imposition of my hands. For God did not give you a spirit of cowardice, but rather of power and love and self-control. So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake, but bear your share of the hardship for the gospel, with the strength that comes from God. Take as your norm the sound words that you heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.”

We all need reminders. Emails are sent about meetings, calls made about a dentist appointment, a light on the dashboard to check the oil. Each one has importance and serves a good purpose.

Paul resorts to a reminder and uses the example of a flame. We know a small spark has great potential to become a blazing inferno. Blowing gently on embers from a barbecue can create a fire. The old song ‘it only takes a spark to get a fire going’ is real.

The same image was directed to Timothy, reminding him of the hands asking for the Spirit to ordain him. The same imposition of hands occurred for us at our baptism and confirmation. Yes, we too have the gift of power, love and self-control. Am I ready to stir it into a flame?

We pray for all of our sick and homebound parishioners especially Teddy Malasky, Charles Donovan, John Dominick II (father of John Dominick III), Reagan Grace Light, Gloria Doulard, Douglas Harrison, Patricia “Patty” Moore and Peter Fox. May our support and care bring them restoration of health.

First Reading: Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

The prophet Habakkuk cries out despairingly to God because of the state Jerusalem has fallen into. He asks why God does nothing to stop the violence and misery. God assures him that a time will come when only the just and faithful will live.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

Paul writes to Timothy from prison and urges him to continue to spread the gospel without fear or shame. He also tells Timothy to draw upon the strength of the Holy Spirit to help him face the hardships he will encounter while preaching.

Gospel: Luke 17:5-10

The disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith. Jesus replies that "faith the size of a mustard seed could transplant a sycamore," indicating that a person either has faith, strong and complete, or none at all. Jesus also explains that a servant will not receive gratitude for simply following his master's orders. In the same way, we are all God's servants doing no more than our duty when we obey God's commands.
