OCTOBER 11, 2020

Dear Friends in the Lord,

Pope Francis, in his message for World Mission Sunday, implores us, “In this year marked by the suffering and challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic, the missionary journey of the whole Church continues in light of the words found in the account of the calling of the prophet Isaiah and the theme of this year’s World Mission Sunday: Here I am, send me” (6:8). This is the ever-new response to the Lord’s question: ‘Whom shall I send?’ This invitation from God’s merciful heart challenges both the Church and humanity, in the current world crisis.”

During the Mission Month of October, Pope Francis reminds us that, as Christians, we are called personally to mission – especially at this time – to bring Christ’s love to those most forgotten around the world. Jesus is God the Father’s Missionary; He asks us to respond to this call to mission, this invitation to “step out of ourselves for love of God and neighbor.” What will your answer be? “Here I Am, Send Me” is the response we will all endeavor to live out this World Mission Sunday, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and generosity to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Through the Pope’s own missionary society, you too can be sent out to all the ends of the earth – sent through your support of missionaries and those they serve. Your gifts sustain priests, religious sisters, and brothers as well as lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, and serve the poor. With them, you answer, “Here I Am, Send Me.”

This year, in response to the challenges to the Mission Church from the pandemic, I invite you to consider a sacrificial gift to the annual World Mission Sunday collection. It will be collected on the weekend of October 17-18. Your generous support will enable the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to continue to spread the gospel to the growing faith communities of our day.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

“I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance... I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress. My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.”

Paul’s description of himself and his life is quite clear. His journeys, imprisonments, shipwrecks and encounters with Christ are well known. May we fast forward and look at the church of today.

The face of Christ is painted in so many ways. We share a close relationship with Christ Jesus. We are blessed, some with abundance, who find Christ in the poor. We find people living in fear of sickness, homelessness, legal status, who are the same brothers and sisters for whom Paul dedicated his life. What can I do to reflect the face of Christ to others? What do I ask for to recognize the face of Christ in those most in need?

My mantra this week: ‘I can do all things in Him who strengthens me.’”

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

This passage describes the new Jerusalem as a heavenly banquet on the mountain with the Lord God wiping away all tears.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

In simple, direct words, Paul thanks the Philippians for alleviating his hardships. He stresses, though, that he is as accustomed to poverty as to abundance and finds all his strength in Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

Once more speaking to the chief priests and the elders, Jesus relates the parable of the wedding banquet. A King, preparing a wedding banquet for his son, summons all the invited guests. When, after several invitations, no guests arrive, the King commands his servants to “go out into the byroads and invite anyone you come upon.” Again, Jesus warns the elders, “the invited are many, the elect are few.”
