BROTHER JUNIPER

We shall see God

ALL SAINTS

“See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called children of God. Yet so we are... Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we will see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure... ‘Rejoice and be glad for your reward will be great in heaven.’”

It’s time for elections. I do not refer to politics, but I choose a friend of the Lord, as my special saint. It might be my patron, Francis or Clare, it may be Mary or Teresa the Little Flower. How about a saint of our time, Saint Faustina, Saint Pope John 23rd, Oscar Romero or Mother Teresa. How about Juan del Rio, the Cristero. Why is this one special to me?

They lived the scripture passage above, and their hope and Jesus’ promise has been fulfilled. This is why we celebrate today. Make your choice, choose to be a saint today.

by Rev. William J. Reilly

First Reading: Revelations 7:2-4, 9-14

John recounts for us the details of his vision. An angel bearing the seal of the living God demands that the land and sea not be destroyed; huge crowds stand before the throne of the Lamb crying out that salvation comes from God; angels gathered round and praised God; an elder questions John and explains that those dressed in white are the ones who have survived the great period of trial.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

Once again John speaks to us of love. He points out to us the great love that the Father has for us by allowing us to be called children of God. John explains that the world doesn't recognize us because it never recognized Jesus. Our future will be revealed to us and in that light we shall see him as he is.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds of people he went up to the mountainside gathered his disciples around him and began to teach them. This lesson in love has come to be known to us as the great "Sermon on the Mount" or "The Beatitudes."
