BROTHER JUNIPER

“Then they came to Capernaum, and on the Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught as one having authority and not as the scribes... All were amazed and asked one another: ‘What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him.’ His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.”

Mark’s gospel finds Jesus in Capernaum, a town on the northern edge of the sea of Galilee. Today the focus is on the teaching role of Jesus. Last week we had the summary message, ‘The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the gospel.’ His message is heard, and the people respond.

The same authority is found in the church’s teaching today. We are not to be cafeteria Christians, choosing to follow this point, but rejecting what doesn’t seem to please US, or challenges my way of life. May we embrace the teaching role of the church to direct our Christian lives in matters of faith and morals.

by Rev. William J. Reilly

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses explains to the people that a prophet will come from among them, and that they should listen to this prophet’s words, for God has told him of this prophet. God also tells Moses that anyone who pretends to speak in his words, or speaks in the name of other gods shall die.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Paul tells the Corinthians how an unmarried man or woman is able to devote themselves fully to God without concern for the needs of a spouse. Paul explains that God wants to help them promote good and devote themselves more fully to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

As Jesus was teaching, a man with an unclean spirit came to the synagogue and asked if Jesus had come to destroy them. Jesus ordered the spirit out of the man, who shrieked violently as the spirit departed. The people were amazed at the authority he had over the spirit.
