Gospel Today

2nd Sunday of Easter or Sunday of Divine Mercy | John 20:19-31

That evening, when Jesus appeared to the disciples for the first time since His Resurrection, they were in a room with the door locked. When Jesus offered them peace and the Holy Spirit, their fears were relieved. The following week Jesus appeared again, this time making Thomas a believer.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Jesus gave Sister Marie Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938) a simple ABC message to write down

Ask for His Mercy, Be Merciful, Completely Trust in Jesus

Do you sometimes feel like a “doubting Thomas”? Think of this simple ABC message God has given us to strengthen your faith.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

“The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them.”

The life of the first Christian community was no different than our own. The ideal presented in the Acts of the Apostles, will later disclose the suffering, the persecution, the obstacles which confronted the first disciples of the Lord. The grace of God was truly present and manifest as they bore witness. The Spirit gave them power.

We may think that our current experience is more harsh, as we observe people suffering from war, persecution and hate. Although this reality exists, it does not permit us to give up, but rather address the cause of persecution and hardships of today. I can do at least one thing to bring about change. What is the one thing I resolve to do this week as a sign that I want to have the experience of the first Christian community to be as real for me? Easter says, ‘He lives.’

by Rev. William J. Reilly

First Reading: Acts 4:32-35

This passage describes the actions of the first community of Christians. They were of “one heart and one mind.” They had no rich or poor among them, for they shared all necessary items with one another.

Second Reading: 1 John 5:1-6

John explains that we become God’s children by believing in Jesus. When we love God and concern ourselves only with pleasing God, our faith is strong enough to conquer the evil in our world.

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Jesus appeared to the disciples despite locked doors, breathed on them so that they could receive the Holy Spirit, and gave them the power to forgive sins in his name. Thomas, who was not present, refused to believe without seeing Jesus for himself. Jesus appeared again when Thomas was present, and told him, “Blest are they who have not seen and have believed.”
