The Bible Timeline, the Story of Salvation

Ty Perry and Sally Wilkins will be leading a 24 week bible study on The Great Adventure: The Bible Timeline, the story of the 14 narrative books of the Bible. We will be meeting on Tuesday nights 6:30-8:00 starting January 28. The program is encompassing in scope, eye-opening as Jeff Cavins leads you through the story of God's Salvation, but is not overly academic or scholarly. Easily accessible for participants with beginner levels of biblical knowledge, and equally rewarding for those with fuller knowledge. You may find out more at Ascension Press <https://ascensionpress.com/pages/the-great-adventure>

Each participant will need to purchase a course workbook which has charts, commentary, and questions to answer. Or perhaps one workbook per couple if you wish to share. The cost will be $37.95 per workbook when ordering in bulk. Please do not order yet or send us money - we will let you know when we reach a minimum participant threshold and then ask for the money to order the books together.

Please sign up soon by calling Faith Formation at 673-4797 or emailing perry8777@comcast.net.

NON-TRIVIAL PURSUITS

Weekly challenge from your Faith Formation Team (12-15-2019)

The Jewish feast of Chanukah begins this evening. Where is this feast mentioned in the Bible, and what does it commemorate?

Answer to Last Week's Question: (12/8/2019)

The third Sunday in Advent is "Gaudate" Sunday, named for the opening word, in Latin, of the Introit (Entrance Antiphon): "Rejoice." Why? Because "The Lord is near" – meaning, not Christmas, but the Second Coming, as the readings for the day make clear.

Advent: awaiting the human and divine savior

As Advent's narratives and liturgies come to a close, the Lectionary encourages us to look back to Jesus' historical incarnation, to look forward to Jesus' parousia, and to look at our readiness now as disciples. This week's readings tell us who Jesus is and what he will do for us.

Matthew's gospel is Joseph's story of Jesus' birth. Matthew's narrative describes Joseph's social and scriptural encounters on his way to understanding who Jesus is.

Social. Following Jewish tradition, Joseph entered into an arranged marriage with Mary. Family elders arranged marriages, with the partners betrothed as young teenagers. Betrothal lasted from a year to several years, concluding with the "coming together." At this marriage ceremony, the groom escorted the bride from her father's home to his home, and wife and husband consummated their marriage. Mary's pregnancy during betrothal left Joseph with difficult choices: either strict Torah law (stoning), or the simpler writ of divorce, allowing Mary to marry someone else.

Scripture. An angel appearing in a dream is a well-known Hebrew scripture motif. The angel assures Joseph that Mary is trustworthy. To reassure Joseph, the angel reveals Jesus' identity and mission. The name Jesus (Y'shua or Joshua) means "God saves." Jesus' will save his people from their sins, meaning Jesus is not a political or military leader, but a spiritual savior. The angel concludes the birth announcement with a fulfillment quotation. Matthew uses this formula to show continuity between Hebrew biblical tradition and the events in Jesus' life. Joseph awakes and does what God's messenger has asked: he takes Mary into his home and names the child Jesus.

The Advent Lectionary readings have led the believing community through prophets' visions and pronouncements, Paul's and James' interpretations, and finally Matthew's stories of Jesus' life, words, and actions. On Advent's last Sunday, Joseph emerges as a pivotal figure. Like us, Joseph moves from confusion, to trust, and finally to enlightenment about who Jesus is. Does our confusion about God's plan stop us from doing what we know is right? Do we trust that God will show us what we must do? Do we recognize God's presence in those we encounter?

Christmas Message 2019

The story of Christmas does not end with the angels' song glorifying God. Here we see the shepherds' response to the revelation given to them by that heavenly host. They "went in haste," to see for themselves. They probably did not stay long at the manger despite what our nativity scenes capture. The shepherds keep moving, making known the message about the child Jesus and glorifying God as they returned to their flocks. Although they remained shepherds, they had been changed. They were now the first evangelists of the in-breaking of God into human history.

On this Christmas morning the gospel calls us to respond to God's action in our lives. That response requires both quiet contemplation and bold proclamation. Christmas finds most of us unwrapping gifts that have been waiting all Advent to be opened. In this time with family and friends we can bask in their presence and take pleasure in the things we have received from loved ones. However, a true gift given in love is one that obligates the receiver to action, that is, to return the gift—not as a kind of payment or equal exchange but as a loving response of thanksgiving, acknowledging both the gift and the giver.

When our heavenly Father is the one who bestows the gift, and the gift given is Jesus his only Son, what "return gift" could we possibly give? Today we can look to the humble shepherds who had nothing to give but their presence and their courageous witness to any who would hear their message—that God is with us! We also can follow the example of Mary whose "return gift" was her very heart in which she allowed the message to dwell and shape her life and actions.

In his famous poem Howard Thurman says, "When the song of the angels is stilled . . . the work of Christmas begins". How many of us remember waiting as children for Christmas morning, or waiting for a special birthday, or a visit from family or friends? The wait seemed interminable. And yet the object of our anticipation finally and inevitably arrived. The Christmas word of God tells the story of another wait, but this time for one thousand years! The promised Son of David, the sprout from the stump of Jesse, has appeared. Jesus, the fulfillment of the promises made of old, is Son of David and also Emmanuel, God with us. The divine has become human and humanity is thereby filled with divinity.

"God with us" not only once two thousand years ago but also now and eternally. When we celebrate the birth of the Messiah, we recognize the fulfillment of all of our longings, all of our anticipation, all of our expectations. Only Emmanuel, God with us, can satisfy our longings and yearnings. For that, we celebrate and are grateful.

Merry Christmas! Fr Dennis
