Today's Readings—Every Advent, the Liturgy of the Word gives our sense of time a reorientation. There's a deliberate tension in the next four weeks' readings—between promise and fulfillment, expectation and deliverance, between looking forward and looking back.

In today's First Reading, the prophet Jeremiah focuses our gaze on the promise God made to David, some 1,000 years before Christ. God says through the prophet that He will fulfill this promise by raising up a "just shoot," a righteous offspring of David, who will rule Israel in justice (see 2 Samuel 7:16; Jeremiah 33:17; Psalm 89:4-5; 27-38).

Today's Psalm, too, sounds the theme of Israel's ancient expectation: "Guide me in Your truth and teach Me. For You are God my Savior and for You I will wait all day." We look back on Israel's desire and anticipation knowing that God has already made good on those promises by sending His only Son into the world. Jesus is the "just shoot," the God and Savior for Whom Israel was waiting. Knowing that He is a God who keeps His promises lends grave urgency to the words of Jesus in today's Gospel.

Urging us to keep watch for His return in glory, He draws on Old Testament images of chaos and instability—turmoil in the heavens (see Isaiah 13:11, 13; Ezekiel 32:7-8; Joel 2:10); roaring seas (see Isaiah 5:30; 17:12); distress among the nations (see Isaiah 8:22/14:25) and terrified people (see Isaiah 13:6-11).

He evokes the prophet Daniel's image of the Son of Man coming on a cloud of glory to describe His return as a "theophany," a manifestation of God (see Daniel 7:13-14). Many will cower and be literally scared to death. But Jesus says we should greet the end-times with heads raised high, confident that God keeps His promises, that our "redemption is at hand," that "the kingdom of God is near" (see Luke 21:31).

Family Preparation for Sundays

Sunday, December 2—Jesus continues talking about the end times. He warns that carousing, drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life can distract us from being ready. Why do you delay making time for prayer and confession? NOTHING should keep you from prayer and confession!

Sunday, December 9—John the Baptist warns all of the need to repent. We all act like we have plenty of time for repentance and that we are just fine as we are. Human standards to be classified as a "good person" are not very high. In the end, you will be judged by God's standards. Don't wait! Go to confession and be ready to meet Him!

Adoration of Our Lord Spend One Hour With Him

- * Sign up for an hour on Monday or Tuesday or both to spend with Jesus.
- * Gather 2 or 3 of your friends or family members and plan to attend an hour together.
