Today Is the 10th Sunday of Ordinary Time. Now that we have completed the Easter Season and have celebrated two solemnities the past two Sundays, we now enter into the season of Ordinary Time in the church year. With only a couple of special Sunday celebrations left in the church year, the season of Ordinary Time will take us all the way to the 1st Sunday of Advent. We will be concentrating on the preaching, teaching, and miracles of Jesus found in the Gospel of Mark until Advent. This weekend, in our Gospel, Jesus speaks a parable, which seems his way to communicate his message. It seems the scribes are confused for they attribute the power of Jesus to exorcise demons to the devil himself. The message of the parable is that division has no place in relations to God's will. It seems this is an important message for our times today.

Please keep Bishop Murry in your prayers. He has been released from the hospital and is at his residence. He is still very tired and is not accepting visitors. The doctors are pleased with his response to chemotherapy. The leukemia cells have been suppressed, but the Bishop will return to the clinic weekly for testing and monitoring his condition. Bishop Murry is very appreciative of your prayers and messages of support.

The Dillon-Santucci Funeral Home is now open to accept pre-planning of funerals and funeral home services. With the funeral home right on our property it will make it extremely convenient for services, Mass and luncheon... all in the same location! For services or preplanning call 330-856-0918, or go to www.dillon-santucci.com.

Welcome all our visitors who are with us this weekend. You are always welcome... and we would love to have you join our parish family. You can find on the welcome/information table in the gathering space, new parishioner packets if you would like to join our parish family. You can also find a book of our parish organizations and who to contact if you would like to join... maybe you can offer us something to improve our faith community. We all bring different gifts to the church and to the altar. It is our call to share those gifts.

Our next Second Saturday Supper is this weekend serving a Ham & Scalloped Potato Dinner. Thanks to all those who worked and supported this dinner. We will have a financial report next weekend. Thanks to all who supported the 'Church at Home' combined collection last weekend. It supports the Campaign for Human Development, the Catholic Communication Campaign, and the Catholic University of America. If you would still like to support these Catholic Organizations here in the United States, there is an envelope in your packet.
