Seniors Meeting - July 10 at 11:00 a.m. in the parish center

Remember in prayer ~ Rosemary Keaveny. May she rest in peace.

Today is the 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time. This weekend the Gospel talks about two women, two daughters in different scenarios. The two healing miracles testify to the power of Jesus and his word. In Jesus, is the presence of life, not death. This provides a connection to the passage from Wisdom in the First Reading for this weekend. The two daughters, one within the nation and Israel, the other not, also signifies that Jesus has come for all people, and the healing hand of Jesus reaches beyond any social or religious barriers.

Please continue to keep in your prayers, Bishop Murry. He has been recuperating at home the last three weeks and has been regaining his strength and stamina. He has been most appreciative of your prayers and support. He has begun a second round of a less intensive five day chemotherapy treatments. He will be able to remain at home for treatment, but will return to the Cleveland Clinic twice each week through the month of July to monitor his condition. Bishop Murry is very optimistic about his recovery.

Prayer for our First Responders and Military

Dear Lord Jesus Christ, we give you praise and thanksgiving for all the first responders and military personnel in our communities around the world who bravely serve to protect us from harm. Be with them tonight and protect them always as they continue their diligence on the streets and battlefields. We ask Our Blessed Mother to always be their Mother ready to protect them. For those who have given their lives, we ask that their families are healed and protected from more harm. Amen.
