Being a mission-oriented Church that forms disciples of Jesus

SUNDAY, MARCH 28, 2021 — PALM SUNDAY

From the Desk of Bishop Fabbro:

Dear Brothers in Christ,

As Holy Week nears, different regions of the diocese are in different government-regulated colour zones, but with all requiring observance of necessary and precise protocols designed to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus. Consequently, our Holy Week and Easter celebrations will be scaled down from what they would be ordinarily. This is certainly a loss for both the priests and people since the liturgies of these holiest days of the Church's year are rich with meaning and filled with ages-old symbolism that allow us to enter anew into the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus.

Among the celebrations that must by force of circumstances be pared down is the Mass of Chrism on Monday of Holy Week. This annual event is one wherein the whole Church of London, represented in the lay people, religious, deacons and priests, gather with the bishop in the cathedral church for the blessing and consecration of the oils that are signs of the outpouring of the gift of the Holy Spirit on individuals in our parish communities in the celebration of the sacraments.

During this liturgy, the members of the assembled presbyterate renew their priestly promises, recommitting themselves to their service of God's people. It is a moment marked by the sacredness of the renewed pledge to devoted priestly ministry, as well as an outward sign of the unity of the priests with the bishop and with each other.

Again this year, because of the strict limitations on gatherings, we cannot be all together in the cathedral for the Mass of Chrism. I invite you to watch the livestream broadcast of this celebration on Monday, March 29 at 11:00 a.m. To access the livestream broadcast, please go to www.cathedral.dol.ca

Bishop Dabrowski and I will be at the cathedral for the Triduum celebrations and want to assure you that throughout these high, holy days you will all be in our thoughts and prayers.

There will be a day of resurrection that will follow the pandemic. I look forward to celebrating that day with the People of God in our diocese.

Fraternally yours in Christ,
Most Rev. Ronald Fabbro, C.S.B. Bishop of London
