What about Church Offertory/Collections?

3/23/2020

Thank you for asking! Yes, one of the many consequences of having to suspend public Masses is the interruption of our weekly collections. And without an offertory collection, our parish budget gets hammered, along with our programs, ministries, and parish outreach. During this challenging time, your continued support means a great deal, since we rely on your committed generosity to sustain our parish, and to serve you, our parishioners.

For those already signed-up with Faith Direct, thank you for maintaining your giving. For those who normally give through your offertory envelopes, you may mail your contribution to the parish office (checks, no cash), or you might consider signing-up to give online, through Faith Direct.

Thank you, so much, for helping keep St. Pius X active and alive, through this extraordinarily trying time. We look forward to gathering with you again, when the pandemic threat subsides, and we can join together to celebrate Mass, and finally share the Eucharist, once more.

God bless you and keep you safe!

Love and prayers,
