

Christ the Teacher School

Acceptable Use Agreement for Technology

The use of computer services at Christ the Teacher School is a privilege, not a right. Students are expected to make responsible, ethical and appropriate use of information services at all times. Network and computer services include, but are not limited to: school computers and peripherals, internet, email, and associated software. Students must realize these services are finite, costly and such things as time, money and hardware are wrongfully restricted or appropriated when these services are abused. Christ the Teacher School maintains high expectations for students of all grade levels regarding their use of computer services before, during and after school, in the school buildings as well as off school premises. The following Rules of Conduct apply to all information services.

STUDENTS:

- May not reconfigure or tamper with the network system, attempt to access/alter files without authorization.
- May not unlawfully copy software or information.
- May not use illegal software.
- Must cite properly all information from electronic sources and used in assignments.
(Copyright infringement occurs when a person inappropriately reproduces or transmits material that is protected by copyright)
- May not run non-instructional computer games on any school owned device, server/network.
- May not use email without authorization by the teacher.
- May not use social media or messaging during school or inappropriately outside of school.
- May not post private or personal information, photos of students, faculty or staff members on the internet, including without limitation, YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, SnapChat, or other social networking sites without permission.
- May not participate in any communication that threatens, intimidates, or harasses any student, staff or faculty member; or violate any other laws.
- Will be held responsible for all activity conducted while using any school device and are expected to use internet etiquette including Catholic morals and behavior.
