1ST ANNUAL BENEFIT DINNER & LEGACY PLANNING FORUM

St. Charles Parish and School will host our 1st Annual St. Charles Benefit Dinner and Legacy Planning Forum this Spring. The benefit dinner is a parish event, for the church and school, in which our pastor, Fr. Vincent and our principal, Mr. Horton, hope to lay out a foundation to sustain our faithful communities now and for future generations. "Legacy," as used in this context, means that the contributor wishes to create a legacy of support for the parish by providing ongoing donations and/or gifts. This is the first annual benefit dinner; this year it will be at the Marriot Courtyard on Saturday, March 23rd at 6pm. More information about this new & important parish event will be provided in the coming weeks! If you have questions now, please contact Dave Menicucci at 505-235-8501.

ARCHDIOCESAN 24TH ANNUAL YOUNG ADULT APPRECIATION AWARD

Next Saturday, February 2nd, the Archdiocese of Santa Fe will hold their 24th Annual Young Adult Appreciation Banquet at the Archdiocese Catholic Center! We would like to congratulate all the recipients who will be recognized! And a very special congratulations to Lauren Atencio and Gary Le, our St. Charles Young Adult Nominees and award recipients!!! Lauren Atencio and Gary Le are amazing young adults in our parish, who are such a blessing to our community.

Lauren is currently a third-year student at UNM, pursuing a PHD in chemistry. She works for Sandia National Laboratory and enjoys playing the guitar and photography. Lauren comes from a beautiful family who serve together at St. Charles Borromeo in the choir at the 11am Mass every Sunday. The joy and reverence that Lauren shares with the community through her music inspires us all.

Gary Le is 22 years old and has been an usher at the 7pm bilingual English-Vietnamese Mass every Saturday since he was in high school. His reverence is evident in his kindness and in the way he cares for his grandparents. Gary is also very responsible and reliable and helps to lock up the church every weekend after Mass. Gary recently joined the St. Vincent de Paul Society because he believes in their cause and that we are all called to love and serve one another.

We are truly blessed to have both, Lauren and Gary, as role models of our faith for our future generations. Congratulations Lauren and Gary!
