ASSUMPTION SCHOOL WEEKLY NEWS
October 28, 2020

Dear Parents and Students,

The cool fall weather has arrived, with the possibility of the "white stuff" on Friday. Wow! On that note, I do take the kids outside as much as possible even when it is cold as they need the fresh air and the release of energy. Please take a look at the weather each morning so your child is dressed appropriately. Also, please make sure that gloves, hats, scarves, and coats are labeled with their names, so we know what belongs to whom!

I hope that everyone has a safe and Happy Halloween. Remember to please keep in mind with all of your weekend activities, that we are trying to keep our Assumption family healthy and in school. With your help we can do this!

Happy Halloween!

Mrs. Olson =)

Assumption Face Masks

We will be selling handmade Assumption School face masks as a fundraiser for the school. An order form was emailed to all parents on 10/19.

All Soul's Day

In honor of All Soul's Day on Monday, November 2nd, we are asking that if our students would like to bring a picture of a family member that has passed away that they do so by October 30th. Please be sure that your child's name is on the back of the picture along with Assumption School and their grade. With that information the picture will be returned to them later in November/December. Thank you for participating.

Flu Vaccines

Please remember to send in documentation when your student/s receive their Flu vaccine. Thank you!

Halloween Colors Dress Up Day

This Friday is our Halloween Colors Dress Up Day. Students may wear jeans or uniform pants with an orange, green, black, or Halloween themed shirt. Please no leggings and NO costumes.

Cost for dress up day is $1.00
