Christ is the day

Christ is risen! He has burst open the gates of hell and let the dead go free; he has renewed the earth through the members of his Church now born again in baptism, and has made it blossom afresh with men brought back to life. His Holy Spirit has unlocked the doors of heaven, which stand wide open to receive those who rise up from the earth. Because of Christ's resurrection the thief ascends to paradise, the bodies of the blessed enter the holy city, and the dead are restored to the company of the living. There is an upward movement in the whole of creation, each element raising itself to something higher. We see hell restoring its victims to the upper regions, earth sending its buried dead to heaven, and heaven presenting the new arrivals to the Lord. In one and the same movement, our Savior's passion raises men from the depths, lifts them up from the earth, and sets them in the heights.

Christ is risen. His rising brings life to the dead, forgiveness to sinners, and glory to the saints. And so David the prophet summons all creation to join in celebrating the Easter festival: Rejoice and be glad, he cries, on this day which the Lord has made.

The light of Christ is an endless day that knows no night. Christ is this day, says the Apostle; such is the meaning of his words: Night is almost over; day is at hand. He tells us that night is almost over, not that it is about to fall. By this we are meant to understand that the coming of Christ's light puts Satan's darkness to flight, leaving no place for any shadow of sin. His everlasting radiance dispels the dark clouds of the past and checks the hidden growth of vice. The Son is that day to whom the day, which is the Father, communicates the mystery of his divinity. He is the day who says through the mouth of Solomon: I have caused an unfailing light to rise in heaven. And as in heaven no night can follow day, so no sin can overshadow the justice of Christ. The celestial day is perpetually bright and shining with brilliant light; clouds can never darken its skies. In the same way, the light of Christ is eternally glowing with luminous radiance and can never be extinguished by the darkness of sin. This is why John the evangelist says: The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to overpower it.

And so, my brothers, each of us ought surely to rejoice on this holy day. Let no one, conscious of his sinfulness, withdraw from our common celebration, nor let anyone be kept away from our public prayer by the burden of his guilt. Sinner he may indeed be, but he must not despair of pardon on this day which is so highly privileged; for if a thief could receive the grace of paradise, how could a Christian be refused forgiveness?

From a sermon by St. Maximus of Turin, Bishop, d. 465

Stewardship

As shown below, giving results for the 10-months ended April 30, 2019, are above what they were a year ago but behind budget by nearly the same amount. The April budget was set high in anticipation of needs to cover any unplanned winter related costs and to jump-start spring projects. Of course, winter did us no favors with higher than planned utilities and snow-removal expenses. If you are able, please help during these last few weeks of the fiscal year. Donations will need to be received by June 26th, to ensure inclusion in the results for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2019. Collections for Easter ($34,054), Lenten self-denial ($2,411) and Good Friday for the Holy Land ($6,228) all exceeded last year! A HUGE THANK YOU for supporting St. Charles Borromeo and the many needs being served through our ministries!

SAINT CHARLES
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Dear St. Charles Parishioners,

Our spring concert honoring Mary certainly lived up to its reputation once again. I'd like to acknowledge our music teacher, Mrs. Jane Malone-Miller for the amazing work she did with our children! The kids sang beautifully and it was a moving experience leaving us adults filled with hope for the future of our church and world.

Our middle school band and choir concert is coming up on May 23. It will begin at 7 pm in Doran Hall and we can't wait to hear the voices, the instruments, and the praises. Please feel welcome to join us for this evening.

In the aftermath of our accreditation visit, I'd like to share with you the five strengths of our school that the MNSAA team commended us on.

The team commends St. Charles for:

1) Having a visible mission statement which clearly drives the culture of the school

2) Having complete curriculum standards, a dedicated review process, and alignment to ensure that every student completes a rigorous academic program

3) Its valid, connected, supported, visionary, reasonable, and student focused strategic plan

4) Its efforts in professional development including bringing in outside instructors and consultants to provide greater excellence

5) The numerous opportunities it provides for parents/guardians to be involved in the school community

Thank you for your support of our school thank you for following what is going on at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School.

God bless you,

Danny Kieffer
St. Charles Principal
