THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

Almighty ever-living God, who govern all things, both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the pleading of Your people and bestow Your peace on our times. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Mass Readings

1st Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Gospel: John 2:1-11

Responsorial Psalm Meditation

Ps 96:1-3, 7-10

The Responsorial Psalm is an exuberant hymn of praise. This is a new song, for God has given us new signs of his glory and love.

It is not only the people of Israel who should give praise to God. All the nations on the earth are called to join in this song. They have all witnessed His goodness toward the people of God.

This is one of the reasons why we gather together on Sunday: to sing the praise and glory of God. We are called upon to tremble before Him.

This is not fear caused by terror of what God might do to us. It is a sense of awe that we have when we observe the works of God in our midst.
