THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

May Your people exult forever, O God, in renewed youthfulness of spirit, so that, rejoicing in the restored glory of our adoption, we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Mass Readings

1st Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

2nd Reading: Revelation 5:11-14

Gospel: John 21:1-19

Responsorial Psalm Meditation

Ps 30:2, 4-6, 11-13

The Responsorial Psalm continues the theme found in the First Reading: that God can transform events that might be considered to be curses and make them into blessings.

It is interesting that the psalm does not say that God will do away with all of our difficulties. It is assumed that there will be moments of mourning and discouragement and that there will be moments when we suffer the consequences of our sins.

Our hope lies in the fact that God will soon deliver us from our grief, and will always be willing to forgive us our faults.

In these Easter weeks we celebrate the victory of life over death, of light over darkness. This is the reason for mentioning the dawn (the time of the day when Jesus rose from the dead). Yet, we still experience death (our own and the deaths of those whom we love).

We must walk through the dark valley (the difficulties and discouragements of life), but God will never ask us to face these things alone. His love will change our mourning into dancing. We will never be alone again.

CONTINUING YOUR CHRISTIAN JOURNEY

Are you new to the Catholic faith and wish to be baptized? Do you need to complete your First Sacraments of Holy Communion and/or Confirmation? Go to: oceanside4christ.com/becoming-catholic Or talk to the pastor or deacon after Mass.

MARRIAGE HELP

Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage, but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope.

Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together.

For more information about an upcoming Retrouvaille Weekend program for couples, call (951) 259-9474 Or visit HelpOurMarriage.com

Please pray for our First Communicants who will be receiving their First Holy Communion next Sunday, May 12th at the 11:00am Mass.

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP

The parish invites single young adults aged 18–39 to gather in the Ministry Room on the first Sunday of the month, May 5, after the 11:00a.m. Mass to enjoy fellowship, eat food, and explore our Catholic spirituality as a help towards growing in God's grace.

ENGAGED & NEWLYWED FELLOWSHIP

Sunday, May 12, and every second Sunday of the month is our Engaged and Newlywed Fellowship. This is an opportunity where engaged and newlyweds who are in their first five years of marriage can gather in the Ministry Room for fellowship, a light lunch and chat with Fr. Wallace and Dcn. Chuck.

MONTH OF MAY

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Mother and Queen.

"In the hierarchy of holiness it is precisely the 'woman', Mary of Nazareth, who is the 'figure' of the Church. She 'precedes' everyone on the path to holiness; in her person 'the Church has already reached that perfection whereby she exists without spot or wrinkle'". — St. John Paul II Mulieris Dignitatem, 1988

HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR THE MONTH

"That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for this continent."
