THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in the profession of the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Mass Readings

1st Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

2nd Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Reflection before the Gospel: There are mysteries such as the Trinity that we will never fully understand. Our only proper response is awe and praise. "Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come" (Revelation 1:8)

Responsorial Psalm Meditation

Ps 8:2a, 4-9

Psalm 8 is a hymn that speaks about the glory that God has shared with human beings.

God did not create us to be slaves who would respond to God's every whim. Rather, God has shared His glory and honor with us and made us a little less than the angels.

When God created us, he breathed His Spirit into us. In other words, there is something of God inside each of us. We are not animals or fancy machines. We are created in God's image and likeness.

Yet, this also carries a responsibility. Dominion does not mean that we can abuse nature at will.

It means that we must treat it with sacred dignity, for it is the handiwork of God. We should celebrate nature and praise God with a childlike sense of wonder because of it.
