THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

Almighty ever-living God, increase our faith, hope and charity, and make us love what you command, so that we may merit what you promise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Today's Mass Readings

1st Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

2nd Reading: Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Gospel: St. Luke 18:9-14

Responsorial Psalm Meditation

Ps 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23

The Responsorial Psalm continues the theme found in the First Reading.

God hears the cry of the poor. He answers the appeal of those in distress.

He searches the hearts of all and rewards the just and punishes those who do evil. For this we praise God.

It is good for us to know that there is another way to look at reality (from that which we experience everyday of our lives).

It is good to know that there is someone who can guarantee true justice.

And so we find our refuge in God. We place all our hope in him.
