THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

O God, author of every mercy and all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving has shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by your conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

TODAY'S MASS READINGS

1st Reading: Ex 17:3-7

2nd reading: Rom 5:1-2, 5-8

Gospel: Jn 4:5-42

The living water flows only from the divine source. The Samaritan woman went to a well which was deep, but limited, whereas unlimited was her thirst for happiness and love. The woman, the Holy Father tells us, "represents the existential dissatisfaction of one who does not find what he seeks". How often man seeks the infinite, the eternal, well-being...but sadly continues to seek it in a well, in a reality, the earthly reality, which is unable to contain it. How many wells, deep but empty, how many wells of stagnant water, we have met on our way! We carry within us immense desires and easily deceive ourselves that we can meet them.
