TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

O God, by whom we are redeemed and receive adoption, look graciously upon your beloved sons and daughters, that those who believe in Christ may receive true freedom and an everlasting inheritance. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 18:15-20

Unfortunately, there are far too many Christians today who pay no heed to the obligation of encouraging a brother to give up their sinful ways. They shrug it off by saying: "am I my brother's keeper"? The answer is in this lesson we have just read—we are our brothers keepers. Even if we have many temptations and inclinations to sin, we shall not overcome them if we have no time to think of our neighbors' needs. It is in the home that the religion of the next generation is firmly established or lost. When parents are loyal to their faith in their daily lives, their children will, as a rule, be loyal to it; whereas when parents are careless and lax, their children are as well.
