THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

O God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving have shown us a remedy for sin, look graciously on this confession of our lowliness, that we, who are bowed down by our conscience, may always be lifted up by your mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL: JOHN 2:13-25

He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money-changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of scripture, "Zeal for your house will consume me (John 2:12-14)."

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Friday Mass at 6pm followed by Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and meditations on the Stations of the Cross.

THE CHURCH COMPASS

The Church accompanies us on our journey through life, through the seasons of the year and within the changing circumstances of our daily lives. The following themes can serve as a guide along this path. They can be used individually, as a family or in groups.

REMEMBER: What area in your home do you constantly have to clean? Is there a place in your house that seems to always get cluttered or messy? How much stuff do you have that you don't really use?

READ: John 2:13-25

REFLECT: The Temple of Jerusalem, made of blocks of stone, was a visual reminder of the presence of the God of Israel dwelling in the midst of His People. Christ Himself is the embodiment of God who stands in the midst of humanity. Every cell of His body is a "living stone" of God's new and everlasting holy temple.

REVIEW: From Christ's perspective, why was it necessary to express anger? 1. After all His preaching why did nobody seem to take His message seriously? 2. Jesus was expressing His opposition to the selling of religious items? 3. To show how dangerous it is to get on the wrong side of God? 4. Christ wanted to restore the temple to its original purpose?

RESPOND: From your own perspective, where in your life do you need to develop more "toughness"? 1. In overcoming my fear of opposition 2. In following through with my sacred commitments 3. When I'm tempted to take the easiest path 4. On speaking out for the vulnerable and the exploited?
