HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR APRIL

We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

God of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own, increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed, that all may grasp and rightly understand in what font they have been washed, by whose Spirit they have been reborn, by whose Blood they have been redeemed. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL: JOHN 20:19-31

"Bring here thy finger, and see My hands; and bring here thy hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing". Be a witness to the Divinity of Jesus Christ! Thus did the ancient Church speak to the newly baptized on this Sunday. Now in their everyday dress they must go out as witnesses that "Christ is the Truth". God the Father bore witness to this at Christ's Baptism by water, God the Word became our Blood witness on the Cross; God the Spirit gave witness when by Him, Jesus was conceived in the womb of Mary. Yes, this is the triple testimony of God which we, too, must witness unto others.

MASS TO CELEBRATE GOD'S CREATION

You are invited to join Bishop Robert W. McElroy for Mass to celebrate God's creation on April 17th at 2:00 pm either in person at St. James Parish, 625 South Nardo Avenue, Solana Beach or watch via live-stream. It is important that we celebrate all the gifts of God's creation and dedicate our efforts to bring Pope Francis' message of Laudato Si into our faith practices and daily life.

For more information, contact Fr. Emmet Farrell [Ef Farrell@sd catholic.org](mailto:Ef Farrell@sd catholic.org) or (619) 419-8345

THE CHURCH COMPASS

The Church accompanies us on our journey through life, through the seasons of the year and within the changing circumstances of our daily lives. The following themes can serve as a guide along this path. They can be used individually, as a family or in groups.

REMEMBER: Recall a time you had to withdraw from everyone. Maybe went to your room and locked the door. Was it because of an argument, a disappointment, exhaustion or some other personal event or trauma?

READ: John 20:19-31

REFLECT: The apostles had felt very secure when they accompanied Christ on the road for the three years of his public ministry. There were often cheering crowds, spectacular miracles, captive audiences and a sense of excitement and mission, even the thrill of being part of a new mass movement. Once Christ was arrested, publicly crucified and died on the cross, their whole world changed and their relationship with the crowds and political establishment dramatically changed, they had lost their point of reference for life and living as they remembered it.

REVIEW: When the resurrected Christ entered into their hiding place and assured them of his divine mercy and peace, from their perspective how might they have reacted? 1. They were in total shock. 2. They felt guilty for abandoning him. 3. They were overjoyed. 4. They could feel a weight being lifted from them. 5. They were embarrassed and felt awkward. 6. This was too much to take in at once. 7. I'm seeing things.

RESPOND: From your own perspective, how have you come to accept that Christ, after his death by crucifixion actually rose from the dead? 1. I've studied the evidence. 2. I'm convinced by the biblical accounts. 3. I've experienced the living Christ in my life. 4. I've been in a similar situation as the apostles. 5. I simply accept it as part of Church teaching. 6. I've experienced His healing touch and mercy. Father was really happy to hear from you and the family.
