HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR JUNE

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

GOSPEL: MARK 5:21-43

People heard rumors about the man from Nazareth who was said to be the Messiah and was supposed to be able to work miracles, but they were too practical, too sensible to listen to such rumors. Anyway, they had no interest in the Messiah as they were fully occupied with their financial and worldly interests. Has the world changed much throughout the years? How many millions of nominal Christians ignore Christ today, millions who are too practical to waste time on such a thing as their eternal salvation! How fortunate would not people be if they could, like the suffering woman in today's Gospel, break through worldly pride, worldly interests and worldly associates and touch the hem of his garment; if they had a bit of faith; if only they could say to our Lord "come and lay your hands upon me so that I may be made well and live."?

St. Cyril, Patriarch of Alexandria, one of the metropolitan sees of the Christian Church in the east, was one of the great defenders of the faith against the heresy of Nestorius who denied the oneness of the person in Jesus Christ. At the Council of Ephesus in 431, over which he presided in the pope's name, and at his instigation, it was defined that Christ, the Son of God, is at the same time God and man, and the Blessed Virgin Mary, His mother, is truly Theotokos, the Mother of God.

St. Cyril died in 444. The Church venerates him as one of her great doctors. His commentary on the Gospel of St. John is one of the richest doctrinally of those left us by the Fathers of the Church.

2021 PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

On June 26-27, we will have a collection for Peter's Pence, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world.

The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on margins of Society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters.

Individual bags of chips (1-3oz)

Please no perishable or previously opened items.

FIRST READING: WISDOM 1:13-15; 2:23-24

The first reading is taken from the Book of Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 and references a truth which is clearly stated for the first time in the whole Old Testament — man's real destiny is an unending life with God.

2ND READING: 2 CORINTHIANS 8:7, 9, 13-15

The second reading is from the Second Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15. St. Paul urges the Corinthians to give generously toward the collection he is organizing for the poor Jewish converts in Palestine.

GOSPEL: MARK 5:21-43

The Gospel is from St. Mark 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35-43. Today's gospel gives us two further proofs of the divine power and the infinite mercy of our Savior. Apart from the primary purpose of proving his claim to be the promised Messiah, all his miracles had as their aim and end — the benefit of suffering human beings. He worked no miracle for the sake of astonishing people or to satisfy idle gossip. Each one was performed in order to help someone in distress. The Gospels give us only some of the many miracles our Lord worked. They give them to prove that he was what he claimed to be — the Son of God and the long-expected Savior; and also to prove his compassionate understanding and sympathy for suffering humanity.
