TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

O God, who causes the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL MEDIATION JOHN 6:60-69

When Peter answered Christ's challenge—"will you too go away?"—Peter spoke not only for his fellow Apostles that day with, "Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life," but for all Christians who really believe that Christ was the incarnate Son of God. Peter made his act of faith before he was fully convinced of the divinity of Christ. We have the faith of two thousand years of Christians whose belief in the Blessed Eucharist as a sacrifice and sacrament was at the very center of their Christian lives. We also have the noble example of many martyrs who gave their lives in defense of this truth. Our faith may never be put to such an extreme test, but should it be, God grant that we will not be found wanting.

MASS FOR SURVIORS OF SUICIDE LOSS

The Office for Family Life & Spirituality invites survivors of suicide loss to attend our annual Mass on Saturday, September 4, 2021 at 5:00pm at St. Raphael Parish in San Diego. You are invited to bring a photo of a loved one who has died by suicide and place it at a designated table in their honor. Auxiliary Bishop John P. Dolan will preside.

ST. MONICA

St. Monica (333-387) was born in Tagaste, northern Africa and died in Ostia, near Rome. Monica was a Christian, but her husband Patricius was a pagan and a man of loose morals. Monica's virtues and prayers, however, converted him, and he was baptized a year before his death. When her son, Augustine, joined the Manichean sect and went astray in faith and morals, Monica's tears and prayers for her son were incessant. She followed him to Milan where Augustine went to teach and there continued to storm heaven with her prayers for her son. Finally, she had the joy of witnessing St. Ambrose baptize Augustine in 387. She died in Ostia, as she and her son gazed at the sea and discoursed about the joys of the blessed. St. Monica's feast day is August 27th.
